Intent-To-Transfer

Student Responsibilities

- Submit the Intent to Transfer form and admission application to Utah State.
- Enroll in courses each semester as outlined by your advisors.
- Schedule an appointment with your academic advisor each semester to discuss your progress.
- Pass all classes with departmental required grades and remain in good academic standing at both institutions.
- Receive, or be on schedule to receive, an Associate of Arts or an Associate of Science degree at current institution.
- Upon completion of your program at your current institution, send the required official transcripts and supporting documents to Utah State.

INTENT TO TRANSFER

Enjoy life as an Aggie!

Student Benefits

- You will know what your chosen degree program specifically requires before attending Utah State.
- You will be assured that graduation requirements will not change once you've committed to the Intent to Transfer.
- You will have the confidence of knowing that every course you take will count toward degree completion at Utah State.
- You can connect with your academic advisor, as well as department faculty and staff, earlier and become aware of academic opportunities within your discipline.
- You will experience effective academic advising at both institutions as well as career exploration and counseling at Utah State.
- You will experience less "transfer shock" when you arrive at Utah State, because of prior preparation.
- You can become an Aggie while attending your current institution (complete with Aggie gear from Utah State).
- You will be given one-on-one opportunities to talk to USU representatives on your campus.
- Maintain at least a 3.5 GPA at your current school and be guaranteed a scholarship to Utah State (Price or Logan).
