

ABOUT PERU

Peru had a rich cultural life thousands of years before Pizarro turned up in funny clothing. Wander around colonial cities that echo the legacy of Spanish conquistadors.

Lima is a vibrant city with friendly people, it quickly snares the curious traveler with fine museums, striking architecture and richly historical neighborhoods.

Peru also boasts some of the most spectacular scenery in South America. The beautiful Peruvian Andes issue a siren's call to top-class trekkers. These mountains are also home to indigenous highlanders, who still speak the ancient tongue of Quechua and live a traditional way of life.

- Lonely Planet 2007

FOR MORE ACADEMIC & PROGRAM INFORMATION CONTACT:

USU Program Leader:

Bonnie Glass-Coffin

Professor of Anthropology

bonnie.glasscoffin@usu.edu

<http://www.usu.edu/anthro/peru>

USU Professor Bonnie Glass-Coffin will be the onsite instructor for this faculty-directed program. Professor Glass-Coffin is a cultural anthropologist who has been returning to north coastal Peru since 1975 and taking students to the region since 1998.

FOR APPLICATIONS CONTACT:

Office of Study Abroad

0108 Old Main Hill

Taggart Student Center Room 313

Logan, UT 84322

www.usu.edu/studyabroad

Phone: 435-797-0601

Fax: 435-797-8018

E-mail: studyabroad@usu.edu

Perú

Summer

Anthropology Program

June 9th – July 11th, 2008

Huanchaco, Perú

(Draft-copy, program details subject to change)

Last Revised: 09/12/2007

{think} Study Abroad

www.usu.edu/studyabroad

UtahState
UNIVERSITY
Office of Study Abroad
TSC 313
Tel: (435) 797-0601
Fax: (435) 797-8018
studyabroad@usu.edu

{think} Study Abroad

www.usu.edu/studyabroad

UtahState
UNIVERSITY
Office of Study Abroad
TSC 313
Tel: (435) 797-0601
Fax: (435) 797-8018
studyabroad@usu.edu

Peru Summer Anthropology Program: Huanchaco

Program Outline

This program gives students a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to earn credit as participants in an ethnographic field school for anthropology/sociology research. The program is located in Huanchaco, Peru a fishing village on the northwest coast of Peru near Trujillo and famous archaeological sites.

Program Dates

The program begins in Huanchaco on Monday June 9th and ends on Friday July 11th. Students most likely will depart SLC on June 7th (stay overnight in Lima) and return dates can be arranged individually.

Program Cost

~$2,095

Includes: tuition and all program fees, room and full board, medical insurance for specified program dates, most ground transportation, and some excursions.

Not included: airfare, incidental expenses, personal travel, some transportation costs such as bus travel to Huanchaco (for those flying into Lima with the group).

Financial Assistance

Most USU scholarships and financial aid apply. For more information on additional scholarships, visit the Study Abroad Office and/or website.

Credit

Students will earn 6 USU credits for the summer program. Courses will be graded and factor into the USU GPA. Students should meet with their academic advisor for course credit approval.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Curriculum

Students can earn undergraduate or graduate credit for the following USU courses.

Anthropology 5130 or 6130 Ethnographic Field School 6 credits

Or Sociology 5130 or 6130 Ethnographic Field School 6 credits

Students will design and complete an ethnographic research project onsite that will benefit not only their research interest, but will assist the local community. Since students will spend much of their experience interacting with the local community, some basic knowledge of Spanish is required. Please discuss these language requirements with the program director.

Application Process:

$100 Application Fee (due with application)

Non-refundable, unless determined ineligible.

Application Deadline

Friday, February 8, 2008

Late Fee: $50

~$500 payment due: Friday, March 7, 2008

~1,495 balance due: Friday, April 4, 2008

In case of insufficient registration or fluctuation in exchange rates, USU reserves the right to adjust program costs or cancel the program.

Admission criteria include past/current academic performance, ability to favorably represent USU abroad, and potential for success in the program. Acceptance is subject to program leader approval.

NOTE: Program costs, eligibility requirements and curriculum may change if program funding is received from a National Science Foundation grant.

Other Arrangements

Airfare, passport, visa, and other personal or miscellaneous expenses are NOT included in the program fee and are the responsibility of the student.

Housing

Hostel-type housing with 2-4 people per room. Breakfast, lunch, and dinner will be provided onsite.

Eligibility Requirements

Minimum age of 18

Minimum 2.75 cumulative GPA

Valid passport

Pre-departure Orientation

Participants are required to attend pre-departure orientation(s) held to provide program and cultural information. Participants will be notified in advance of these orientations.

Travel

Students may choose to travel with the group or make their own arrangements. Students will be met at the Lima airport for those traveling with the group.

