Please attach a constitution including a mission statement with the application...if you think you may have one on file please check in TSC Room 326. No application will be accepted without a constitution with a current mission statement!!

I, the undersigned, take the responsibility of serving as the responsible party for the organization above. This organization complies with the requirements that only students registered at Utah State University are officers and/or voting members (unless the ASUSU Executive Council waives this requirement upon request) and that there is no discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, religion, sex, or national origin within this organization. I also agree to notify the ASUSU office of any changes in this original information *within four weeks after the change has been instituted. I understand all information submitted on this form is available for public use and printed in the Student Involvement Guide. I further agree to uphold the written policies of Utah State University and/or ASUSU. In doing so, the organization I represent will be allowed to use university facilities and services in compliance with established policies, and will not be denied the right of use on the grounds of its beliefs, goals, sexual orientation, or attitudes.
