

Work Study (WS) Awarding Timeline for Students, 2018-2019

Below are key deadlines for the Work Study awarding process for the 2018-2019 academic year.

- Students must complete a free application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by April 15, 2018 to be eligible for a WS award for the 2018-19 year.
- You must be registered by May 1, 2018 for fall semester 2018.
- Students will be awarded no later than May 31, 2018.
- Those students who are awarded the WS funding can begin applying for positions on August 1, 2018 at usu.joinhandshake.com/login.
- Students who have obtained WS positions may begin working on the first day of class which is August 27, 2018.
- Starting October 1, 2017 the 2018-19 FAFSA is available to complete at www.fafsa.gov. The 2018-19 FAFSA will use the 2016 tax/financial information.
- Please use the IRS Data Retrieval tool to transfer in your tax information directly from the IRS. Steps to transfer the information to the FAFSA are found at: <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/fafsa/filling-out#financial-info>.
- Please complete the 2018-19 FAFSA as soon as possible and remember to answer “YES” on the question asking if you are interested in being considered for work study.
- Any questions on the FAFSA should be referred to the Financial Aid Office at 435-797-0173.

For any questions regarding work study please contact:

Brenda Bohm
Employment Coordinator
Career Services
435-797-0176
brenda.bohm@usu.edu