Advising Forum
The advising forum is used to communicate information to advisors and those who interface with advising. Information related changes in policies, technology, or programs which benefit students will be shared. Academic advisors and those who interface with advising attend Advising Forum and receive the weekly advising newsletter.

Mykel Beorchia Facilitator

Advising Working Group
This committee provides communication between advising and units who interface frequently with advising. Members are from advising, Associate Deans, Registrar’s Office, Student Orientation and Transition Services, Athletics, Career Services, Financial Aid, Regional Campuses, Student Marketing and Communication, and Analytics. This group champions initiatives from the Council of Lead Advisors and Advising Working Group.

Mykel Beorchia (Chair)

Council of Lead Advisors and Regional Campus Council of Lead Advisors
The Council of Lead Advisors includes the lead advisors for each college and Exploratory Advising (Logan) and region (Regional Campuses). The Councils of Lead Advisors establish best practices for advising at USU, determine professional development and training topics for advising at USU, and make recommendations to university leadership to strengthen policies and practices impacting students and advising.

Lisa Allen (Chair) College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences

Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Advisory Council
The Affirmative Action Advisory Council meets each semester and has as its major purpose: (a) reviewing University policies and procedures for compliance with Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity (AA/EO) guidelines, and recommending changes as needed; (b) performing periodic review of AA/EO programs including the Affirmative Action Plan; (c) serving as member of the Affirmative Action Appeals Committee whose purpose is to review formal complaints of discrimination which have been appealed.

The AAAC services a critical function by assisting the AA/EO Director in identifying relevant campus issues/concerns and by providing insight and guidance that will enable USU to continue its enhancement of diversity and equal opportunity.

Utah State University Staff Employees Association
The SEA supports the mission, goals and objectives of USU, provides representation for the employees to the administration and University Committees, recognizes the dignity of individuals and promotes excellence and service. The primary purposes of the Association are to:

- Foster a harmonious and cooperative relationship between administration, faculty, exempt and non-exempt staff members and students.
- Uphold and support the mission and goals of USU.
- Work with other USU groups in recommending and implementing policy concerning USU and the needs of all employees.
- Facilitate communication, understanding and cooperation among employees and with other USU groups (students, faculty, and administration).
- Provide an authoritative voice within USU for expressing problems and concerns of Association members.
- Provide an amicable method of settling differences or grievances that may arise between the Association, its members, other USU groups or their members.
- Promote professional and personal development and job improvement of SEA members.
- Promote the objectives, general welfare, fellowship and mutual interests among the Association members and USU.
