Learn and Live

Students who live on campus are at the heart of campus life. USU residence halls are located next to or near all University classrooms and libraries, with additional in-house tutoring, computer labs, study rooms, and classrooms provided to residents. USU's residential communities are designed to promote academic success, with an atmosphere conducive to academic, social, cultural, and personal growth.

Residential Learning Communities

Each year, USU data have confirmed that students who live in residence halls do much better academically, which means earning higher GPAs. Students living in residence halls are also able to carry heavier class loads than are students who live off campus. Research also shows on-campus students tend to be more involved in academic and extracurricular activities, persist and graduate on time, and enjoy their overall collegiate experience more. All students living within housing learning communities have access to the following services to assist in their academic success: computer labs, high-speed Internet access, educational programming, peer tutors (math, writing), enhanced academic advising and career counseling, faculty mentoring, increased faculty interaction, and leadership and service opportunities. A well-trained team of professional and peer staff also provides numerous opportunities for social and educational activities, which build the community, as well as supplement and support formal classroom experiences.

By participating in specialized academic programs and floors, students can live with others enrolled in the same academic program or having similar interests. Students participating in these programs share a floor and/or building with students having common college interests. Increased faculty interaction through on-site mentoring, advising programs, and activities are just a few of the benefits.

Each community offers slightly different opportunities and is designed with the student in mind. High-quality facilities at reasonable rates, along with service and convenience, are provided. Prices include Internet access, local phone, cable TV, and free shuttle bus service. Single housing apartment prices include all utilities, full kitchens, and furniture. Family housing units have full kitchens and are rented unfurnished. Family residents are responsible to pay electric and gas utilities.
