Undergraduate Programs

Objectives

The Department of History offers a flexible program to accomplish the following objectives:

1. To train undergraduates to research, analyze, synthesize, and communicate reasonable conclusions about the past by using the historical method.
2. To inculcate cultural literacy and provide the knowledge necessary for informed decision-making by citizens of Utah, the United States, and the world.
3. To provide students with crucial work skills in research, analysis, communication, and collaboration, as well as enriching their lives.
4. To contribute to the liberal arts curriculum of the University through general education, general interest courses, the history major, the history teaching major, minors in history and classics, and the interdisciplinary programs of folklore, American studies, and British and commonwealth studies.

History is a reading- and writing-intensive program.

Requirements

Departmental Requirements. New freshmen accepted in good standing by the University may apply for admission to the History Department. Students transferring from another institution or another major will be admitted if they have a minimum 2.5 GPA in history courses and an overall minimum GPA of 2.5. A minimum 2.75 GPA is required for entry into the teacher education program.

Candidates for a degree must earn a grade of C or better in all history courses used to meet the requirements for a history major or minor, a history teaching major or teaching minor, or a classics minor.

Bachelor of Arts (BA) Degree in History

The BA degree requires a minimum proficiency in a foreign language. This proficiency may be established in one of the following ways:

1. 16 credits in a single language.
2. Documentation of a proficiency level of “intermediate low” or better through an examination administered by the USU Department of Languages, Philosophy, and Speech Communication.
3. Completion of any upper-division foreign language course constituting a third-year course of study with a grade of C or higher.

Bachelor of Science (BS) Degree in History

The BS degree in history requires 15 credits of math and science beyond the University Studies requirements. Of the 15 credits, 3 must be earned in a statistics course, preferably in social science statistics. The remaining 12 credits must include a course series from the following list: BIOL 1210, 1220; CHEM 1210, 1220; GEOL 1150, 3200; PHYX 2110, 2120, 2210, 2220.

History Major. Thirty-six credits of history coursework are required. A grade of C or better must be earned in all history courses used for the major. Each major must complete one of the following three courses in the area of premodern civilization: HIST 1020, 1040, or 1060. Each major must complete one of the following two courses in the area of modern civilization: HIST 1030 or 1050. Each major must complete one of the following two courses in the area of American history: HIST 2700 or 2710. (If a student has taken HIST 1700 on another campus or at USU before entering the History Major, this course may be counted toward meeting the American history survey requirement.) No student, including transfer students, may count more than 12 credits of lower-division coursework toward the history major. Every senior must take HIST 4990, the capstone course for the major. Students should complete their remaining 21-24 credits by taking 3000- and 4000-level history courses. Since new courses may be approved from time to time, any upper-division course listed in the current Schedule of Classes under History is acceptable.

No more than 3 credits of HIST 4930 may be applied toward the major.

Since the study of history requires an understanding of many fields of human endeavor, students majoring in history must select a minor. Historians are encouraged to take electives in fields that will broaden their knowledge of the world and are closely allied to history, such as literature, economics, geography, anthropology, political science, sociology, classics, philosophy, or foreign language.

Students wishing to undertake graduate work should pursue the BA degree. During their senior year, they should take the graduate record exam (GRE).

History Teaching Major. Thirty-nine credits, earned in history courses, are required. A grade of C or better must be earned for all history courses used for the major. Each major must complete one of the following three courses in the area of premodern civilization: HIST 1020, 1040, or 1060. Each major must complete one of the following two courses in the area of modern civilization: HIST 1030 or 1050. Each major must complete one of the following two courses in the area of American history: HIST 2700 or 2710. (If a student has taken HIST 1700 on another campus or at USU before entering the history teaching major, this course may be counted toward meeting the American history survey requirement.) No student, including transfer students, may count more than 12 credits of lower-division coursework toward the history teaching major. Every history teaching major must take one of the following three courses as a senior capstone course: HIST 4850, 4860 or 4870. Students should complete their remaining 24-27 credits by taking 3000- and 4000-level history courses. A minimum of two courses must be taken from each of the following areas: U.S. history, European history, and world history. Since new courses may be approved from time to time, any upper-division course listed in the current Schedule of Classes under History is acceptable. To become licensed to teach history, students must be admitted to the Secondary Teacher Education Program (STEP). A 2.75 GPA is required for admission, as well as a writing test, a speech and hearing test, and a background check. Application should be made as soon as practical after the history teaching major has begun. Applications for admission are available in the History Department office. The STEP requires 35 credits of coursework, in addition to the 39 credits of history courses. For additional information about the STEP, contact Harold Heap, secondary education undergraduate advisor, (435) 797-2222.

All teaching majors must also have a teaching minor in an area for which teaching licensure can be granted.

No more than 3 credits of HIST 4930 may be applied toward the major.

Minor in History. Twenty-one credits are required. A grade of C must be earned in all history courses used for the minor. Every student must complete one of the following three courses in the area of premodern civilizations: HIST 1020, 1040, or 1060. Every student must complete one of the following two courses in modern civilization: HIST 1030 or 1050. Every student must complete one of the following courses in the area of American history: HIST 2700 or 2710. (If a student has taken HIST 1700 on another campus or at USU before entering the history minor, this course may be counted toward meeting the American history survey requirement.) No student, including transfer students, may count more than 12 credits of lower-division coursework toward the history minor. Students should complete their remaining 9-12 credits by taking 3000- and 4000-level history courses.

No more than 3 credits of HIST 4930 may be applied toward the minor.

History Teaching Minor. Twenty-four credits are required. A grade of C or better must be earned in all history courses used for the minor. Every student must complete one of the following three courses in premodern civilization: HIST 1020, 1040, or 1060. Every student must complete one of the following two courses in modern civilization: HIST 1030 or 1050. Every student must complete one of the following courses in the area of American history: HIST 2700 or 2710. (If a student has taken HIST 1700 on another campus or at USU before entering the history teaching minor, this course may be counted toward meeting the American history survey requirement.) No student, including transfer students, may count more than 12 credits of lower-division coursework toward the history minor. All teaching minors in history must take one of the following: HIST 4850, 4860 or 4870. Students should complete their remaining 9-12 credits by taking 3000- and 4000-level history courses.

No more than 3 credits of HIST 4930 can be applied toward the minor.

Classics Minor with Emphasis in Civilization. Twenty-one credits of coursework are required. All students must take HIST 3130 and 3150. They must take one of the following three courses in ancient archaeology: HIST 3110, ANTH 1030, or ANTH 3170. They must take one of the following three ancient literature courses: CLAS 1100, 3210, or THEA 5290. They must take one of the following three ancient art courses: HIST 3110, 4210, or ART 4710. They must take one of the following two ancient thought courses: POLS 4310 or PHIL 3100. The remaining 3 credits are elective and may include any of the courses listed above.

Classics Minor with Emphasis in Latin Language. Thirteen credits are required. All students must complete HIST 3150 and 7 credits of upper-division (3000- and 4000-level) courses in Latin language. They must also complete one of the following courses: ART 4710, CLAS 1100, 3210, HIST 4210, or THEA 5290.

Classics Minor with Emphasis in Greek Language. Thirteen credits are required. All students must complete HIST 3130 and 7 credits of upper-division (3000- and 4000-level) courses in classical Greek language. They must also complete one of the following courses: ART 4710, CLAS 1100, 3210, PHIL 3100, or THEA 5290.

Academic Opportunities

Departmental Honors in History. Students in the department with a minimum GPA of 3.5 may apply to pursue an honors degree in history. Those interested should consult the department honors coordinator.

Phi Alpha Theta. History students with a minimum GPA of 3.1 in history classes and an overall minimum GPA of 3.0 are eligible for membership in the national history honor society, Phi Alpha Theta. Those interested should consult the faculty advisor for Phi Alpha Theta.

Undergraduate Teaching Fellows. The UTF program is designed to provide students, particularly potential teachers, with the opportunity to assist professors and, thereby, learn first-hand about the nature of the profession. UTFs must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 and be sponsored by a professor. Application forms are available in the History Department office.

Additional Information

For updated information concerning programs and courses offered by the Department of History, visit the departmental web page at <http://www.usu.edu/history>.

Financial Support

Scholarships, grants-in-aid, and work-study programs are available through the University. The History Department offers tuition waivers and scholarships to outstanding students. In addition, undergraduates may be employed as research assistants and clerical assistants within the department. For current information on scholarships and employment opportunities, consult the department head.

Graduate Programs

Admission Requirements

Graduate applicants may be admitted to the program for either the master of arts or master of science in history if they meet the following qualifications: (1) hold a baccalaureate degree; (2) have at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA over the last 60 credits of undergraduate work, with a 3.5 GPA in history courses recommended; (3) submit Graduate Record Examination (GRE) general test scores, with a required minimum score at the 40th percentile on the verbal section, and a recommended minimum score at the 40th percentile on both the quantitative and analytical portions of the exam; (4) submit three letters of recommendation from persons acquainted with the applicant's academic performance and potential; and (5) submit a brief statement of proposed fields of interest and career goals.

The Department of History also strongly recommends that applicants have either an undergraduate major or minor in history or a closely related field (i.e., American studies, classics). Familiarity with one or more foreign languages is highly desirable and is required for the master of arts degree and for master's level research in many fields of history. Applications will be strengthened by the submission of an example of the student's historical writing, such as a paper (about 15 pages in length) written for a seminar or upper-division course.

The final recommendation for admission will be made upon consideration of all the above factors by the department and the School of Graduate Studies.

Degree Programs and Additional Requirements

Master's Degree, Plan A (Thesis). The thesis option should be taken by anyone intending to do research or enter another program for the doctoral degree. A master of arts, master of science, or master of social sciences degree can be completed with this option.

The program consists of 30 semester credits beyond the bachelor's degree, 6 credits of which must be in thesis research. Students must take HIST 6000, as well as either HIST 6010 or 6020, or another theory-intensive course approved by the director of graduate studies. Students may apply a maximum of 4 internship credits earned while working in an archives, for a museum, on the staff of a scholarly journal, or as a teaching intern in an upper-division undergraduate course.

The remainder of the 30 credits may be taken as electives in history or related courses relevant to the student's program.

Upon arrival at USU, students are urged to meet with the departmental graduate advisor, who will direct them to one or more faculty members with similar interests. Through consultations with the graduate and faculty advisor, the first-year student will form a thesis committee and formulate a course of study. By the end of the first year, most students will have submitted to their committees a proposal for the thesis, which they will write under the close supervision of the committee members. The oral defense usually takes place in the spring semester of the second year.

Master's Degree, Plan B (Nonthesis). A nonthesis master's program can help a student attain employment in many areas, but is not recommended for students planning to secure a doctorate. A master of arts, master of science, or master of social sciences degree can be completed with this option.

The Plan B program consists of 30 credits beyond the bachelor's degree. The course requirements are identical to those of the Plan A program, except that only 3 thesis credits are permitted.

Students completing the Plan B program do not write a full-length thesis. Instead, Plan B students write a research paper of approximately 30 pages in length and submit a portfolio of their graduate writing, which includes two additional and distinct pieces of writing. Students defend their Plan B research papers and writing portfolios before their major professor and the members of the supervisory committee. Final approval of the Plan B rests with the department, rather than with the School of Graduate Studies.

Master of Arts. To receive a master of arts (MA) degree, students must successfully complete two years of foreign language at the undergraduate level. If two years of undergraduate language study already appear on the student's transcript, he or she must demonstrate current competence through successful completion of a language exam or by taking a 3000- or 4000-level language course for which a grade of B or higher proves competency. In all cases, an individual assessment must be made of a student's language status. For further information, see page 95.

Students planning to continue on for a doctorate should be aware that many doctoral programs in history require that students pass written proficiency exams in two languages.

Master of Science. To receive a master of science (MS) degree in history, students may be required to demonstrate, to the satisfaction of their supervisory committee, the ability to incorporate scientific methodologies in their research as appropriate.

Master of Social Sciences (MSS). Like the MA and MS in history, the MSS degree requires a minimum of 30 credits, including 15 credits in the major discipline of history, plus a minimum of 15 credits from one of the following two tracks. Track A: a minimum of 15 credits from two approved minor areas, with at least two courses in each minor area. Track B: a minimum of 15 credits from an approved minor and a liberal arts and sciences cluster, with at least two courses in the minor and two courses in the cluster. Accepted minor disciplines include instructional technology, environment and society, political science, psychology, and sociology/anthropology. This degree is designed for secondary school teachers who need more training to obtain licensure in additional teaching fields or who simply wish to deepen their understanding of a related field.

Students in the MSS program are required to take HIST 6000 and 3 credits of HIST 6970 for their Plan B. A supervisory committee consists of a major professor in history and two committee members, each representing one of the student's minor fields. MSS students, like other Plan B students in history, must write a research paper of approximately 30 pages and submit a portfolio of their graduate writing that consists of two separate and distinct pieces of work, one from each of their two minor fields. An oral defense of the student's Plan B paper and portfolio is held before the student's supervisory committee.

Additionally, the master of social sciences (MSS) in history requires students to demonstrate an understanding of statistical applications in the social sciences.

Financial Assistance

The primary financial assistance offered by the Department of History is through graduate assistantships. Each year, the History Department offers to qualified students, on a competitive basis, a total of seven graduate assistantships. These assistantships entail approximately 20 hours of work per week, assisting faculty members with departmental introductory survey courses. The award carries a stipend and an out-of-state tuition waiver. To keep their assistantships, graduate assistants must maintain a GPA of 3.0 (or a B average) and be a full-time student (see page 89). While enrolled in the MA or MS program, graduate assistants may hold graduate assistantships for a maximum of two years. Applications for graduate assistantships should be postmarked no later than February 1, for the upcoming academic year.

Graduate students may be eligible for Carr Scholarships to supplement their graduate assistantships. Competitive grants to support travel and research are also available to history graduate students.

In addition, financial assistance is available through the Western Historical Quarterly, a journal published at USU. The editors of the journal offer, during alternate years, the S. George Ellsworth Editorial Fellowship and the Robert M. Utley Editorial Fellowship. These fellowships are awarded to highly qualified students working as editorial assistants in that office. These fellowships are nationally competitive and allow graduate students to learn all aspects of journal production. They carry a stipend (with additional funding possible during the summer) and a waiver of the out-of-state portion of the tuition. Materials should be post-marked no later than February 1, for the upcoming academic year. Applicants will be notified in early April.

Funding for the S. George Ellsworth Fellowship is provided by the Western Historical Quarterly, the School of Graduate Studies, the College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences, and the S. George Ellsworth Endowment of the Mountain West Center for Regional Studies. The S. George Ellsworth Fellowship is being offered for the 2005-2006 academic year.

Funding for the Robert M. Utley Fellowship is provided by the Western Historical Quarterly and the School of Graduate Studies. The Robert M. Utley Fellowship is being offered for the 2004-2005 and 2006-2007 academic years. For further information about Western Historical Quarterly fellowships, write to: Western Historical Quarterly, Utah State University, 0740 Old Main Hill, Logan UT 84322-0740; or send e-mail to: cdoyle@hass.usu.edu.

The application deadline for both fellowships is February 1, for the upcoming academic year.

Additional Funding. In addition to graduate assistantships and the Western Historical Quarterly editorial assistantships, the School of Graduate Studies awards a limited number of scholarships. To be eligible for these awards, all students should complete the application for admission and send it, along with GRE scores and letters of recommendation, to the School of Graduate Studies by February 1. A financial aid application form (which may be obtained from the History Department) should be returned to the History Department by February 1.

Students interested in establishing eligibility for federal loans and work-study will need to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and submit it to: Financial Aid Office, Utah State University, 1800 Old Main Hill, Logan UT 84322-1800. Questions about eligibility should be directed to the Financial Aid Office, tel. (435) 797-0173.

Career Opportunities

Some graduates of USU's master's program continue their formal education in PhD programs or law schools. Others find employment in the two-year college or secondary school systems, as teachers or administrators. Still others work for historical societies, museums, publishing firms, and a variety of enterprises in the private sector.
