

Academic Resource Center

Taggart Student Center 305, (435) 797-1128
<http://www.usu.edu/arc>

The Academic Resource Center (ARC) provides services and programs that enhance students' learning skills, strategies, and attitudes. Classes such as PSY 1730 actively orient students to campus and involve them in gaining college-level academic skills. "Drop-in" mathematics and statistics tutoring, as well as the Supplemental Instruction (SI) program, provide additional academic support. Individual consultations assist students with gaining course-specific learning strategies.

Admissions

Taggart Student Center 102, (435) 797-1079, or (800) 488-8108
<http://www.usu.edu/admissions>

The Admissions Office acts as a liaison between the University and high schools and community colleges. It functions as the first point of contact between the University and the public schools and is involved in personal visits to schools and institutions. Personnel in this office are glad to answer questions about the University, conduct tours, assist with arrangements, and help students make application for scholarships and admissions.

Advising, Office of University

Taggart Student Center 304, (435) 797-3373
<http://www.usu.edu/ats>

The Office of University Advising (UA) provides advising referrals and information regarding University requirements, academic policies and procedures, academic program planning, University Studies requirements, services, and resources of the University. UA also facilitates the Peer Advising program. Students who are designated as Undeclared, Undeclared Business, Undeclared Science, or General Studies are advised by UA advisors.

Bookstore

Taggart Student Center 123, (435) 797-1666
<http://www.bookstore.usu.edu>

The USU Bookstore has been serving USU students, faculty, staff, alumni, and the community since 1904.

As the official location for all USU coursework needs, the Bookstore stocks textbooks; school supplies; art materials; computer systems, software, and accessories; general reading books; and a huge selection of Aggie clothing.

A myriad of services are also provided by the Bookstore, including textbook buyback, educational discounts, book-it textbook reservations, scholarships, Aggie Reader's Club, special orders, gift wrapping, engraving, parking validations, gift cards, and more.

Campus Recreation

Health, Physical Education and Recreation 126, (435) 797-7529
<http://www.usu.edu/camprec>

Campus Recreation houses and advises six major recreation and conservation programs: Intramurals, Outdoor Recreation Center, Utah Conservation Corps, Informal Recreation, Club Sports, and Recreation Instruction Program. These programs are run by professionals, students and volunteers. Campus Recreation sponsors numerous events, activities, and volunteer service projects throughout the year, including the following:

Intramurals

Intramural sports include basketball, racquetball, table tennis, badminton, soccer, volleyball, softball, and many more. The rejuvenation resulting from participating in intramurals is a crucial part of the college experience.

Outdoor Recreation Center (ORC)

The ORC is one of the nation's premier university outdoor education and leadership programs serving students and the public through diverse educational programs and comprehensive rental services. The ORC provides rigorous experiential learning experiences fostering independent problem solving, leadership, and communication skills. It also promotes academic excellence, physical and personal development, and responsible involvement and service in the outdoors.

Utah Conservation Corps (UCC)

The UCC is dedicated to improving the quality of public natural resources and the community through partnership projects, community service-learning volunteer efforts, disaster relief, and environmental and outreach education.

Informal Recreation

The HPER and Fieldhouse facilities, including pools, weight rooms, track, and fitness center, are areas where participants can engage in self-directed exercise.

Club Sports

Club sports are for students who wish to play in a competitive team environment at a high level. Some clubs are well-established and require tryouts. There are 16 club sports to choose from, including (but not limited to) ballroom dance, soccer, ultimate frisbee, rodeo, and lacrosse.

Recreation Instruction Program (RIP)

The RIP program offers various instructional programs fostering awareness of different cultures and their lifestyles. A few examples of Campus Recreation's classes are yoga, aikido, and karate.

Card Office/Customer Service Center

USU ID Cards, Debit and Dining Accounts,
Information, and Ticket Sales
Taggart Student Center 212, (435) 797-3852
<http://www.usu.edu/usucard>

The Card Office/Customer Service Center is the location where students receive their USU ID Card. The USU ID Card allows students access to many campus resources and events. In addition, it can be used for debit and dining accounts.

Student Resources

The Card Office/Customer Service Center staff can answer general questions about the University and provide student information. The center offers assistance, information, maps, and problem-solving assistance for students, staff, and visitors. The center also handles Lost and Found items for the Taggart Student Center.

There is an outlet for the USU Ticket Office at the center. Tickets are available for performing arts, theatre productions, STAB events, and all athletic events.

Career Services

University Inn 102, ground level, (435) 797-7777
<http://www.usu.edu/career>

Career Services is the link between students and successful career employment. A dedicated group of professionals is ready to help by offering expertise in four broad areas related to career paths. These four areas are briefly outlined below.

Career Exploration

A variety of exploratory activities and assessments are available to help students develop self-awareness in selecting a major and focusing on career choices suiting their needs, interests, and abilities. PSY 1220 (3 credits), a Career and Life Planning course, is taught to help students more fully explore career options.

Co-op/Internships

Students who participate in this program can graduate with the experience employers are looking for. Students can receive pay and academic credit for one or more relevant work experiences in their field of study.

Career Employment

From on-campus recruiting to fairs, expos, and forums, a wide variety of services are offered to assist students in obtaining employment upon graduation. Students can meet their career advisor one-on-one to discuss resume/cover letter preparation, networking contacts (both employer and alumni), and personal career search strategies.

Testing

Undergraduates and graduates may want to take advantage of tests, such as the American College Test (ACT), the College Level Examination Program (CLEP) tests, the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), the Graduate Record Examination (GRE), the Law School Admission Test (LSAT), and the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT). Test times can be scheduled directly by calling (435) 797-1004.

Children's House

862 East 900 North, (435) 797-3657
<http://www.childrenshouse.usu.edu>

Student parents attending the University may enroll their children at the Children's House, an accredited quality early care and education program. Preschool and kindergarten age children (3-6 years) may be enrolled during fall and spring semesters, and children preschool through second grade (3-8 years) may be enrolled during summer semester. Professional staff provide a healthy, safe, and nurturing learning environment for children by promoting their physical, social, emotional, and intellectual development. There are several flexible full-day and part-day enrollment options from which parents can choose, as space is available.

Computer and Information Literacy (CIL)

Eccles Science Learning Center 131, (435) 797-2405
<http://cil.usu.edu>

As part of the University Studies Requirements, all students receiving a bachelor's degree from USU must score 70 percent or higher on each of the following six computer and information literacy examinations: (1) Information Law and Ethics, (2) Information Resources, (3) Document Processing, (4) Operating Systems, (5) Spreadsheets, and (6) Electronic Presentations.

There is a $30 fee associated with this exam. There is no limit to the number of times a student can take each test. Once a test is passed, a student may not retake that test. After all tests are passed and the fee is paid, the CIL requirement will be posted to the student's transcript.

Counseling Center

Taggart Student Center 306, (435) 797-1012
<http://www.usu.edu/counseling/>

The Counseling Center assists students with personal growth and adjustment, mental health concerns, relationship issues, problem-solving, and career/academic adjustment. Services include individual, couples/relationship, and group therapy; outreach programs; problem-solving consultations; and psycho-educational assessments.

Common problems for which students may seek help include: symptoms of depression and anxiety, adjustment challenges, stress, eating and body image concerns, problems managing emotional reactions, social/interpersonal conflicts, trauma/grief, behavioral addictions, identity issues, and loneliness. Services are confidential and free for students enrolled in 6 or more credits on campus. (There is a nominal fee for psycho-educational assessment.)

For an appointment, call (435) 797-1012 or come to Taggart Student Center 306.

Disability Resource Center

University Inn 101, (435) 797-2444 or (800) 259-2966 Voice or (435) 797-0740 TTY
<http://www.usu.edu/drc>

The Disability Resource Center offers support, facilities, and services to provide students with disabilities equal access to the programs of the University. A student needing interpreters, readers, note-takers, or other services should contact this office. Counseling services, registration assistance, assistive technology, and referral to on-campus and off-campus programs are also available.

Financial Aid

Taggart Student Center 106, (435) 797-0173
<http://www.usu.edu/finaid>

The Financial Aid Office provides direction and counseling in the areas of scholarships, grants, loans (emergency and long-term), federal work aid (work-study), and general on-campus and off-campus temporary employment assistance. Help is available in preparing and submitting applications and supporting materials, and counseling students about school financing and available aid, budgeting, deadlines, and loan indebtedness.

Gay and Lesbian Student Resource Center (GLSRC)

Taggart Student Center 316A, (435) 797-4297
usuglsrc@yahoo.com
<http://www.usu.edu/glsrc>

The purpose of the Gay and Lesbian Student Resource Center (GLSRC) is to provide resources for faculty, staff, and students at USU and for the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgendered (GLBT) Community. The goal of the center is to educate others about the importance of diversity, as well as to promote acceptance of others through education and conversation.

The GLSRC has a lending library with books, magazines, newsletters, brochures, movies, documentaries, and other resources on GLBT issues. Students can check out these resources for projects or papers, use the center's computer, or interact with other GLBT students. The GLSRC also facilitates GLBT panels, answers questions about community events, and provides information about other student organizations serving the GLBT community.

Graduate Studies, School of

Main 164, (435) 797-1189
<http://www.usu.edu/gradsch>

This office handles admission to all USU graduate programs and monitors all graduate students at USU, including final degree approval.

Graduation Office (Undergraduate)

(Office of the Registrar)
Taggart Student Center 246
<http://www.usu.edu/registrar/graduation>

This office provides and processes applications for graduation, publishes graduation lists, and creates diplomas.

Students should contact the Graduation Office at the e-mail address listed below for the college in which they plan to graduate.

College of Agriculture, grad.ag@usu.edu
College of Business, grad.bu@usu.edu
College of Education and Human Services, grad.ed@usu.edu
College of Engineering, grad.en@usu.edu
College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences, grad.hu@usu.edu

Honors Program

Main 15, (435) 797-2715
<http://www.usu.edu/honors>

The Honors Program provides motivated undergraduates with the opportunity to pursue enhanced coursework in their University Studies requirements, as well as in their area of major research. Participants may earn their bachelor's degrees with Honors in an academic major.

A limited number of entering freshmen are invited to join the Honors Program each year, and continuing students are invited to join if they have maintained a minimum 3.5 GPA. Transfer students and those who have completed their University Studies requirements enter the Honors Program through acceptance into a major and will pursue Departmental Honors. Students in the program must maintain a minimum 3.30 GPA. A higher GPA is required for some majors.

Housing and Residence Life

1295 East 1000 North, (435) 797-3113 or (800) 863-1085
<http://www.housing.usu.edu>

Utah State University Housing's commitment is to provide students with reasonable prices, excellent customer service, and the ultimate in campus convenience. A well-trained staff in each residential area provides numerous opportunities for social interactions and community building within the halls and apartments. The staff also offers educational workshops which supplement formal classroom experiences and learning. Residence Life staff members serve as knowledgeable advisors, resources, and mediators.

Living on campus gives students the opportunity to make the most of their collegiate experience. Studies show that those students who live on campus perform better academically, stay in school longer, and are more satisfied with their overall college experience. A well-rounded living/learning environment can have a significant influence on student education, and Utah State University Housing and Residence Life wants to help students succeed. Students may choose from traditional-style, suite-style, apartment-style, and family-style living accommodations.

Independent and Distance Education

Eccles Conference Center 102D, (435) 797-2137 or
(800) 233-2137 (toll free)
<http://distance.usu.edu/>

Independent and distance learning advances the University's land-grant mission by taking academics and discovery to a diverse and under-served student population through electronic program and course delivery.

Independent Study courses allow students to reduce scheduling problems and earn college credit without attending campus classes. Independent Study courses are offered on an open-enrollment schedule. Students may register anytime and may take up to one year to complete the courses. To request a catalog and registration forms, call (435) 797-2137 or (800) 233-2137. For more information, see page 91.

Information Technology

Janet Quinney Lawson Building (North End),
(435) 797-HELP (4357)
<http://it.usu.edu>

Information Technology (IT) provides computing and networking facilities and services for instructional, research, and administrative functions. A current description of these facilities, as well as the access procedures for students and staff, may be found on the IT website.

Student Resources

The IT Service Desk is available from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. by phone at (435) 797-HELP (4357), by e-mail at helpdesk@cc.usu.edu, and for walk-in through the north entrance of the Janet Quinney Lawson building on 700 North. Online services and FAQs may be found on the web at: <http://helpdesk.usu.edu>

IT also coordinates the Student Open Access labs and manages six of them. More than 800 computers are available for use by USU students upon presentation of their USU ID card. Lab locations, hours of operation, and lists of software and equipment available at each lab are described on the web at: <http://www.sls.usu.edu>

International Students and Scholars

Taggart Student Center 313, (435) 797-1124
<http://www.oiss.usu.edu/>

The Office of International Students and Scholars (OISS) is committed to providing the necessary tools for students to succeed, both academically and personally. It provides the support to enhance the academic, social, and personal interactions of international students and scholars while at USU and in the Logan community. It serves as the primary link between the students and local and government agencies. The OISS staff is eager to assist with advising on immigration and other matters, such as personal and social adjustments. A main goal is to create a warm and inclusive environment in which all students can learn and interact in a cross-cultural environment. Throughout the year, OISS and the International Student Council (ISC) offer cultural and educational programs to enhance intercultural competencies and communication skills.

Multicultural Student Services

Taggart Student Center 309, (435) 797-1733
<http://www.usu.edu/multiculture/>

Multicultural Student Services contributes to the mission of the University and Student Services by advancing and encouraging the intellectual, personal, cultural, and professional development of Native-American, African-American, Asian-American, Oceanic, and Latino student populations. Student development is promoted by integrating experiences into the student's total learning environment in the classroom and community that foster, in each individual, respect and responsibility for self and other members of the world around them.

Multicultural Student Services provides direction and leadership for Utah State University's commitment to cultural diversity. This mission is carried out through programs of instruction, advisement, community service-learning, outreach, experiential education, cultural events, administration, and student support services.

Parking and Transportation Services

840 East 1250 North, (435) 797-3414
<http://www.usu.edu/parking>

Students who are unfamiliar with the campus should contact this office for directions and parking instructions. Also available are faculty, staff, student, and visitor parking permits. This office also provides shuttle services from key perimeter parking areas to key central campus locations.

Records Office

(Office of the Registrar)
Taggart Student Center 246
<http://www.usu.edu/registrar/records>

This office processes and maintains student academic records. Students needing transcripts of academic records or needing to make changes to academic records should contact this office at: registrar@cc.usu.edu

Reentry Student Center

Taggart Student Center 315, (435) 797-1728
<http://www.usu.edu/stuserv/womencen>

The Reentry Student Center provides information, assistance, and referral concerning the resources available on campus and in the community to women and men who are returning to school after a gap in their education. The center serves as an informal gathering place for reentry students and facilitates their transition to university life through orientations, workshops, leadership opportunities, scholarships, and programs.

Registration Office

Taggart Student Center 246, (435) 797-1094
<http://www.usu.edu/registrar/>

This office prepares all registration materials and conducts registration.

Residency Office

(Admissions Office)
Taggart Student Center 102, (435) 797-8144
<http://www.usu.edu/admissions/information/residency.cfm>

Nonresident students who feel they have met the requirements for instate resident student status must file an official residency application with the Residency Office no later than 10 calendar days from the first class day. Those missing the application deadline will have residency considered for the next semester, provided that the next appropriate deadline is met with adequate updated documentation.

If an application is denied by the Residency Officer, the student may appeal to the Residency Appeals Committee no later than the 14th calendar day of the semester. Appeals cannot be considered after this deadline.

Information on residency requirements can be obtained from this office.

Retention and First-Year Experience Office

Taggart Student Center 314, (435) 797-1132
<http://www.usu.edu/fyi/>

The Office of Retention and First-Year Experience is a dynamic office with a core mission of student success and retention. Through a variety of programs and services, the office is poised to have an impact on students at the time of entrance to the University, throughout the first year, and beyond. Services include information on research, development, design, and implementation of programs and initiatives that directly target the enhancement of retention efforts. Programs include:

Connections. Connections is an academic course designed to ease students transition to Utah State University and to prepare them for their college experience.

First-Year Experience. The First-Year Experience Program will improve student retention by assisting first-year students with the transition to the academic and social environment of the University. (First-year students are defined as any students attending classes on the Utah State University campus for the first time, which includes freshmen and transfer students.)

Parent and Family Programs. These programs are designed to keep parents and family members informed about happenings at USU; provide valuable information, events, and support for parents; and provide an opportunity for parents to communicate with USU. For further information, see: <http://www.usu.edu/parents>

SOAR. Retention and First-Year Experience provides orientation services to new first-year and transfer students, information concerning USU programs, and information about available services at the University. More information is available on page 29.

Matriculation Advising. USU's Matriculation Advisor facilitates the retention effort through managing the Leave of Absence Process. As part of this process, students who need to leave USU are "recruited" back through targeted e-mails, letters, and personal phone calls. Additionally, the Matriculation Advisor oversees the readmission process for students who are not in academic good standing at USU, by guiding students to good standing through readmission contracts and work with each student's academic advisor. For further information about Leave of Absence and Complete Withdrawal, see page 37.

Sexual Assault and Anti-Violence Information (SAAVI)

Student Health and Wellness Center 119
(435) 797-1510 (General Information)
(435) 797-RAPE (7273) (Crisis Hotline)
<http://www.usu.edu/saavi/>

The Sexual Assault and Anti-Violence Information (SAAVI) Office was created to promote an atmosphere of sexual and physical safety for all female and male students, faculty, and staff at Utah State University. It works to accomplish this task through an environment of education, as well as sensitive, competent response to those who have experienced violence.

SAAVI provides crisis help (i.e., support; assistance obtaining medical, counseling, academic, and legal aid in the aftermath of sexual assault or dating/domestic violence; etc); education (e.g., presentations to groups, clubs, classes, etc); and awareness events (e.g., Red Zone Week, Domestic Violence Awareness Month/Clothesline, Sexual Assault Awareness Month, etc). SAAVI services are available to USU students, faculty, and staff, both women and men; both primary survivors (those who experience violence) and secondary survivors (friends/loved ones of those who experience violence).

The SAAVI Office is located in the Student Health and Wellness Center (north of Romney Football Stadium). For help, general information, questions, or to request a presentation, call (435) 797-1510. The SAAVI Office also maintains a crisis hotline: (435) 797-RAPE (7273)

(available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week, 365 days per year). During nights, weekends, and holidays, the crisis line is answered by CAPSA (Community Abuse Prevention Services Agency), which is a SAAVI community partner.

Student Employment

(Financial Aid Office)
Taggart Student Center 106, (435) 797-0184
<http://www.usu.edu/studemp>

The Student Employment Office develops and posts on-campus part-time and off-campus full-time and part-time openings daily on the Job Board in the hallway outside the Financial Aid Office in the Taggart Student Center, as well as online at the address listed above. Summer openings representing camps, resorts, ranches, government, and private industry across the United States are featured from January through May on display boards at the entrance to the Financial Aid Office. Additional information and assistance may be obtained at the Student Employment counter in the Financial Aid Office.

Student Health and Wellness Center

850 East 1200 North, (435) 797-1660
<http://www.usu.edu/health/>

The Student Health and Wellness Center provides students and their families with care for illness and minor injuries, as well as health and wellness information for a variety of concerns. Help and information on topics such as depression, nutrition, time and stress management, healthy relationships, and prevention of sexual assault and date rape, as well as assessment, education, and referral for substance abuse, are available from a variety of specialists on the staff.

The services of physicians, nurses, and pharmacists, as well as laboratory, physical therapy, psychology, radiology, prevention, and dietitian services, are available on-site. General medical care and specialty care in sports medicine, emergencies, dermatology, gynecology, and psychiatry are provided through the center. Special services include physical exams for pilots, teachers, or missionaries, and x-ray and laboratory services are available. Peer educators, as well as office staff, are available to answer questions and provide support or information on health-related topics. Students gain leadership skills while involved in peer educator teams offering prevention activities and promoting healthy lifestyles. Prevention programs, research surveys, and educational classes are also available through this office. Educational presentations on health-related topics, which are excellent supplements to academic course material, can be scheduled by faculty members for inclusion in their classes.

Most of the costs for services of the Student Health and Wellness Center are covered by the Student Health Fee (paid at the time the student registers), or by a spouse/family member fee (paid during the first visit), but some procedures and classes may require a nominal fee. Although the Student Health and Wellness Center provides administrative oversight of the Student Health Insurance Plan, health insurance is not required to use the Student Health and Wellness Center.

Student Resources

Student Involvement and Leadership Center

Taggart Student Center 326, (435) 797-2912
<http://a-station.usu.edu>

The Student Involvement and Leadership Center strives to provide opportunities for students to receive life, leadership, and interpersonal skills by sponsoring events and activities that complement the academic curriculum and enhance the overall educational experience through the development of a wide range of programs, services, leadership development opportunities, and activities. These events strive to promote diversity, cultural appreciation, social interaction, community service, a sense of community, and effective student government representation.

The Student Involvement and Leadership Center includes the following: student government (ASUSU), fraternities and sororities, Leadership House, Fall Leadership, Mortar Board, Spirit Squad, and the Val R. Christensen Service Center.

Students who are interested in getting involved should visit the A-Station or go to Taggart Student Center 326.

Student Support Services

University Inn 103, (435) 797-3372
<http://www.usu.edu/sss>

Students meeting the low-income criteria established by the U.S. Commission of Higher Education and/or first-generation college students or disabled students may receive special assistance through the Student Support Services Office.

This office seeks to prepare and support students for the challenges of higher education by offering assistance in academic advising and guidance, tutoring on an individual basis, course selection, faculty/peer mentoring, reading and study skills enrichment, mathematics and statistics instruction, financial aid planning, and early registration.

For more information, contact the Student Support Services Office.

Testing Services

(Career Services)
University Inn 115, ground level, (435) 797-1004
http://www.usu.edu/testing_services

Information and test times are available for academic admission tests, including the GED (a high school equivalency exam), the ACT for undergraduate admission, the GRE and MAT for graduate admission, the LSAT for law school, the MCAT for medical school, and the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language, for international students entering at both graduate and undergraduate levels). CLEP exams, which give students the chance to earn semester credits toward their University Studies requirements by exam, are offered. Test information and booklets are also available.

Undeclared Program

(Office of University Advising)
Taggart Student Center 304, (435) 797-3373
<http://www.usu.edu/ats/>

The chief function of the Undeclared program is the advisement of students who have not yet decided upon a major or area of specialization. Students in the Undeclared program typically work on their University Studies requirements while exploring major options. This allows them to make progress toward overall degree requirements and provides them with extra time to make wise, informed decisions. Undeclared students are advised in the Office of University Advising (UA) until they choose a major.

Students who are enrolled in another department, but feel they have chosen their major unwisely, may transfer to the Undeclared program upon receiving permission from an advisor in UA.

No degree is offered through the Undeclared program. Most Undeclared students are freshmen or sophomores. Prior to the junior year, students should select a major and be taking major courses. Students should not remain in the Undeclared program beyond 60 credits or past the end of the sophomore year.

The Utah Statesman

Taggart Student Center 105, (435) 797-6397
<http://www.utahstatesman.com>

The Utah Statesman is a USU student-produced news source. The Statesman is published three times weekly and distributed across campus and at several downtown locations. Additionally, the Statesman is produced online, updated regularly with news and important links available at <http://www.utahstatesman.com>. Advertising of campus events is welcomed and encouraged in the Statesman.

A large number of students in all majors are involved in the production of the Utah Statesman. The Statesman and its staff have won many awards, including Best Nondaily Student Newspaper in a seven-state region, as determined by the Society of Professional Journalists in 2005.

The University provides a Student Media Board, comprised of staff and students, to advise and define policies toward established student media which receive student funding from University fees. This board provides for a defined relationship between student media and the University at large.

Val R. Christensen Service Center

Taggart Student Center 332B, (435) 797-SERV (7378)
<http://a-station.usu.edu/servicecenter/>
valservice@cc.usu.edu

The Val R. Christensen Service Center is a place where students can find opportunities to serve and can develop leadership skills. With more than 20 volunteer programs, students are bound to find service opportunities matching their desires and abilities. Mentoring, tutoring, environmental, and leadership programs are available. Time commitments range from one hour per month to three hours per week. The mission of the Service Center is to prepare students to make lifelong contributions through service; provide students with opportunities to serve; and promote positive attitudes, personal growth, and change through service to the community and the environment.

The Service-Learning Scholars Certificate Program provides an opportunity for students to combine service with their academic experiences. To learn more about how to receive academic credit through service experiences and how to receive this certificate upon graduation, students should visit the Service Center.

Veterans Services

(Office of the Registrar)

Taggart Student Center 246, (435) 797-1102

The Office of Veterans Services assists eligible veterans, qualified dependents of disabled veterans, and National Guard and Reservists in pursuing their educational, professional, or vocational objectives and receiving their appropriate educational benefits.

Women's Center for Lifelong Learning

Taggart Student Center 315, (435) 797-1728

<http://www.usu.edu/stuserv/womencen>

The purpose of the Women's Center (WC) is to support, educate, and empower women of all cultures, races, sexual orientations, and ages; providing a safe environment while respecting all facets of women's abilities, spirituality, and differences. The USU WC celebrates women's achievements and advocates for a climate promoting social justice, free from all barriers and discrimination. The WC provides information, assistance, and referral for resources available on campus and in the community. Programs and events focusing on advocacy for and understanding of issues relative to women in today's society are presented throughout the year.

Writing Center

Ray B. West 104, (435) 797-2712

<http://writingcenter.usu.edu>

The Writing Center provides help at any stage of the writing process and is open to all students. English course fees fund the Writing Center, so students in other disciplines are required to pay a small users fee before making an appointment. For more information on user fees, students should visit or call the Writing Center. All appointments must be made online by going to the website listed above. Consultants are available for one-on-one counseling in the center or for online sessions. The Writing Center opens the second week of each semester and closes the last day of classes. Hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday.
