“I will remember my internship as a French experience that I would not have gained from just taking classes in French. I was able to work alongside my colleagues and learn about the French work culture, an opportunity that would have been impossible without EUSA.” Jacqueline, Economics major

Internship Placement

From fashion to international affairs, the placement team provides a broad spectrum of intellectually engaging internship placements based on your field of interest, professional goals, and skill set. Your French speaking skills will also play an integral role in the type of placement you receive. Here are just a few of the industries available in Paris:

- Arts & Culture
- Business
- Communications
- Healthcare & Education
- Media
- Politics, Law & NGOs

Whats included

- Skype internship consultations and predeparture group orientation
- Orientation in Paris
- 7.5 weeks of housing in a family home stay in Paris
- 7-week placement in an internship placement in Paris
- Cultural exploration activities program

Housing

In order to continue to improve your language skills, you’ll live in Parisian home stays located around the city and are normally about a 40-minute commute from the site of your internship. You’ll be provided with your own key to the home and may come and go as you please, respecting the family’s schedules. You’ll be provided with breakfast daily at the home stay, but all other meals will be your responsibility to provide. Internet access is not guaranteed in French homes, but internet cafes and WiFi services are abundant throughout Paris.

Eligibility

- Minimum GPA: 3.0
- Must be in good academic standing
- Must enroll in 3-12 IOGP course credits
- 5 semesters of college-level French

Costs

The following fees are payable to Utah State University:

Program fee and tuition: $5,954

Important dates

- Application deadline: 1 February 2019
- Internship consultation meetings & predeparture orientation: March 2019
- Program date: 27 May – 13 July

For more information:

Shannon Peterson, Director of Global Planning, Institute of Government and Politics
Phone: 435.797.3966 Email: shannon.peterson@usu.edu Website: https://www.usu.edu/iogp/internship-program/internships
Internship examples

As a marketing intern at a small cosmetics company, the student translates marketing documents, participates in brainstorming meetings, attends trade shows, manages social media accounts, and tracks potential clients.

"This is an amazing opportunity, not only for your professional development giving you more experience and more material for your resume, but also this is an amazing opportunity to challenge yourself...Taking on the responsibility of an internship in a foreign country is unlike any other challenge, but will provide the reward of learning"
Junior, Public Relations major

As an intern at this European anti-racist NGO which coordinates the efforts of some of the largest civil anti-racist NGOs in 29 European countries, the student researches and writes the organization’s newsletter, assists with political advocacy outreach, and manages social media accounts.

"This is an invaluable experience for anyone who wants to gain a different perspective in their field as well as improve their language skills. The EUSA team is so professional and friendly, and were able to find me an internship that perfectly fit my needs. I highly recommend it."
Junior, International Relations major

Internship Placement and Process

1. INDIVIDUAL INTERNSHIP CONSULTATIONS
2. PROVISIONAL PLACEMENT
3. INTERVIEWS
4. CONFIRMATION
5. INTERNSHIP STARTS

Internship Supervisors

“Far beyond the level of any other intern we have ever had. We ended up asking her to present it to the client with us as she was as good if not better than some of the Account Executives in the team. If the option arose, I would take her on after she graduates!” Digital Creative Agency

“He has learned a variety of disciplines in a short period of time and has proved himself a reliable and confident team member. I have no difficulty in recommending him to a future employer. His overall finance knowledge and dedication to master each new role he has encountered have proved that he will be an extremely valued individual for any prospective employer.” Medical NGO

www.eusainternships.org