Help Change the World Over Spring Break

Join USU and the Mother’s Legacy Project in attending The 63rd Annual Conference for the UN Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) in New York City, March 11-16, 2019

The Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) is the principal global intergovernmental body exclusively dedicated to the promotion of gender equality and the empowerment of women.

During the Commission’s annual two-week session, representatives of UN Member States, civil society organizations and UN entities gather at UN headquarters in New York to discuss progress and gaps in the implementation of key global policy documents and initiatives as well as emerging issues that affect gender equality and the empowerment of women.

This Year’s Themes: Social protection systems, access to public services and sustainable infrastructure for gender equality and the empowerment of women and girls.

When: March 11-16, 2019
Where: UN Headquarters, New York City

Program Fee: $700 (includes housing)
Not included: airfare, ground transportation, food

How to Apply: visit the Institute of Government and Politics (IOGP) website and apply online. http://www.usu.edu/iogp/intern-application-1

Important: No need to upload a writing sample. In your cover letter, please explain how this experience relates to your academic and professional goals. For more information about the conference, visit http://www.unwomen.org/en/csw

Application Due: December 14, 2018

For More Information: Contact Dr. Shannon Peterson Shannon.peterson@usu.edu or visit her office in the Alumni House, room 202.