WHEREAS each office on ASUSU was created to serve a specific purpose or a specific constituency, and therefore is vital to the student body at large.

WHEREAS on occasion an ASUSU officer will resign from office, or is impeached from office, leaving that office empty and its respective constituency without representation.

WHEREAS it is essential that the office is filled as quickly as possible so the duties of the vacant office may be accomplished.

WHEREAS it is the duty of the ASUSU President to appoint another person to fill the vacant position, and should view this as a top priority and therefore may use an ad-hoc committee or other avenues to review prospective candidates.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED that the ASUSU President will make an appointment to the empty office within three weeks of it becoming vacant.

BE IT FURTHER ENACTED that if that appointment is not ratified by the Executive Council in the next EC meeting, the AUSUS President will have a one week extension to appoint another person.
