PRESIDENT

The role of the ASUSU Executive Council is to enhance the quality of student life through: academics, student concerns, activities, public relations, athletics, clubs, organizations, service and cultural events. This will also be done through individual college, extension, graduate and legislative student representation.

Charter

ASUSU President hereafter referred to as the President

I. Duties
A. The President Shall:
1. Chair all meetings of the ASUSU Executive Council.
2. Represent Utah State University students at events, including recruitment events, awards, and any other needs.
3. Appoint the PR Director with the input of the programming VP.
4. The PR director and President are to establish communication with the student body. Including campus-wide emails, ASUSU statesman articles, and any other available mediums.
5. Make recommendations to the ASUSU EC for all appointments not otherwise provided for by the Constitution, General Laws and charters.
6. Call all ASUSU elections unless otherwise specified.
7. May be a non-voting member on all ASUSU boards, councils, and committees.
8. Verify that all committees, sub-committees and boards function within their responsibilities.
9. Verify that all charters of members of the Executive Council are up to date and fulfilled.

15. Serve as a member of Executive Council, and any committees, sub-committees, or boards as identified in the ASUSU General Laws and Charters
B. Programs Sponsored

1. Fall Aggie Blue Leadership Workshop: This workshop is designed to train student leaders in leadership skills. The President assists in the coordination and development of the annual ASUSU Fall Leadership workshop. It is the responsibility of the President to select Fall Leadership chairs and facilitators. The President also works with Student Activities Director and staff in programming, organizing, planning, developing, creating, and executing the workshop.

2. Student Hearing Board Pool: Upon induction of the newly elected student officers in April the newly elected President (with assistance of outgoing ASUSU Academic VP) will appoint new students to the USU Student Hearing Board Pool, confirmed by a majority vote of ASUSUEC. The Student Hearing Board Pool needs at least seven students to function and should have twelve possible students at any given point in time. The Hearing Board works with the Chief Conduct Officer to oversee all matters arising from the interpretation of the ASUSU Constitution, the interpretation of the USU Student Code, etc.

3. Presidents’ Cabinet: The President has the responsibility of being or selecting a chair for the Presidents’ Cabinet and organizing the goals and direction of the group. This cabinet should be used to help the President fulfill goals for the office. This should also give a chance to develop future schools leaders. The following are a few responsibilities the Cabinet should help with:

   - Presidential Candidate Debates: The president along with President’s Cabinet facilitates presidential debates during elections. The current president and cabinet will sponsor two debates, one during the primary election and one during final election. In the event that an incumbent president is running for re-election, the next EC officer in order of succession of the president will sponsor these two events (using the current president’s budget).

   - ASUSU Awards Banquet: Two separate ASUSU awards banquets are held. One banquet recognizes those who have worked on ASUSU committees or have otherwise assisted USU students. The other banquet will be a banquet to honor ASUSU EC members. The President, Administrative Assistant, and President’s Cabinet sponsor the ASUSU awards banquet for those that served on committees.
5. ASUSU Inaugural Reception: The President and outgoing executive council will sponsor a reception for the induction of the incoming president and executive council. The President will also oversee the induction ceremony, which is to be held on the second Friday in April.

6. Elections: The president calls the regular ASUSU elections at the beginning of spring semester, and any special elections as necessary.

7. Student Representative on Board of Trustees: The President shall represent the students at Utah State University to the Board of Trustees, report on the actions of ASUSU through comments at the Board of Trustees meetings and a monthly written report, note student accomplishments, select a student for a Resolution of Commendation (student recognition for academic excellence) for each meeting, and relay student concerns.

8. Utah Council of Student Body President (UCSP): The President shall be a member of the UCSP and shall represent the students of Utah State University statewide to the Student Body Presidents in the state of Utah, State Board of Regents, State Commissioner’s office staff, and State Legislators. The president shall be a member of and may chair committees on UCSP and be committed to working on issues facing students throughout the state.

9. Tier II tuition committee: The President shall be or appoint a chair for the Tier II tuition committee. This committee acts with direction from the University Presidents office to make recommendations for programs to sponsor through Tier II tuition. See general laws for more information on this committee.

10. Stater’s Council: The President shall chair Stater’s Council. The President will be responsible for coordinating arrangements through ASUSU Administrative Assistant, Director of Student Activities and Vice President for Student Services to provide an effective liaison with the Executive Council and the administration. The President sees that those presenting legislation and others as invited are in attendance.

11. ASUSU Student Activity Fee Committee: The President shall chair the ASUSU Student Activity Fee Committee. The primary function of this committee is to review the student activity fee and recommend changes to the Student Fee Board. This committee is made up of the ASUSU Executive Council and is the governing body of the student activity fee.
