Worksheet: Sententiae Antiquae
Chapters 9-10 (pp.43-44 and pp.47-48)

a. The questions below pertain to the words underlined in the Sententiae Antiquae or reading(s) cited above.

b. When you’re asked to change a word from one form to another, change only that form of the word. For instance, if you’re asked to change habet to the second person, put habeas. That is, change only the person, not the number, tense, voice or mood.

Chapter 9

Sentence 1: Ubi illas nunc videre possum?

1. What case is illas and why? ___________________________________________________

2. Change possum to future plural. _______________________________________________

Sentence 2: Hic illam in matrimonium ducet.

3. What case is hic and why? ___________________________________________________

4. Change illam to neuter nominative plural. _______________________________________

5. Put doceo in the same form as ducet. _______________________________________

Sentence 3: Huic consilio palmam do.

6. Make huic plural. ___________________________________________________________

7. What case is consilio and why? ______________________________________________

Sentence 4: Virtutem enim illius viri amamus.

8. Make virtutem genitive plural. ______________________________________________

9. Make illius viri dative. ______________________________________________________

[continued on the next page]
Sentence 5: Solus hunc servare potes.

10. Make solus genitive singular. ________________________________________________

11. What mood is servare and why? ______________________________________________

Sentence 6: Poena istius unius hunc morbum civitatis relevabit sed periculum remanebit.

12. Make hunc neuter plural. ____________________________________________________

13. Make remanebit imperfect plural. ______________________________________________

Chapter 10

Sentence 1: Cupiditatem pecuniae gloriaeque fugite.

14. What mood is fugite and why? ________________________________________________

Sentence 3: Fama tua et vita filiae tuae in periculum venient.

15. Put senectus in the same case as filiae. __________________________________________

Sentence 6: Si me duces, Musa, coronam magn~cum laude capiam.

16. What case is Musa and why? _________________________________________________

17. What case is magn~and why? _________________________________________________

18. Change capiam to the infinitive mood. __________________________________________

Sentence 12: Bonum virum natura, non ordo, facit.

19. Put natura in the same case as illius in sentence 5 (below). ______________________

20. Change facit to future plural. __________________________________________________

[continued on the next page]
Sentence 13: Nihil cum amicitia~illius possum comparare.

21. Change illius to neuter nominative. ________________________________________________

22. Change possum to the infinitive mood. ____________________________________________

Sentence 14: Obsequium parit amicos; veritas parit odium.

23. Make obsequium plural. _________________________________________________________

24. Change parit to future. __________________________________________________________

25. What case is veritas and why? ___________________________________________________