We trust that you are enjoying the natural world and the beautiful fall days filled with vibrant color and cool breezes.

There are only a couple of weeks remaining before the beginning of our new series in the Logan, UT area. As a gift to you we are extending the early registration discount until Saturday, October 31st.

We invite you to join us on this heartfelt, deeply transformational journey into this two year, five weekend series of intensives, a profound initiation into the living heart and soul of the Pachakuti Mesa Tradition.

Curious? Before you make a commitment give yourself permission to attend the first weekend to experience the beauty, healing, teachings and power of a sacred circle (hoop) for yourself.

With our many years of experience in this wisdom tradition we know that when you participate in this series it will open your heart, support your awakening, healing, and most importantly open your heart to the love and joy of community and service. Because of this, we wish to share this experience with you.

Please feel free to contact us for a flyer or registration form or with any questions you may have.

With deep love and anticipation,
Bonnie Glass-Coffin, Ph.D. & Carol Rydell Bridgerland Ayllu

The program's intention is to awaken in every participant who completes the series a remembrance of their incarnational purpose as luminous strands of the Great Web of Life in service to the Seven Generations.

"We are all endangered and it is the power of the (Pachakuti) mesa that will restore the strength to Pachamama and will provide blessings for those who participate in this great tradition."

Stanley Krippner,

A two year, five weekend apprenticeship program begins with

The Call to Heal: Releasing the Past November 6-8, 2009 Logan, UT

Friday: 7pm - 10pm
Saturday: 10am - 9pm
Sunday: 10am - 4pm

Tuition: $275 (Early Registration Discount EXTENDED if postmarked by October 31st) After October 31, 2009, $299

You are invited on a journey to:

- Receive powerful wisdom teachings in Peruvian shamanism, healing and earth honoring ceremony
- Experience powerful initiations into the shamanic arts
- Awaken to the power of the elemental forces
- Discover a path of inner calling and personal transformation
- Cultivate a relationship with unseen levels of guidance
- Encounter shamanic states of consciousness
- Create your own mesa, a sacred altar for self-exploration, empowerment and transformation

This apprenticeship program will provide you with a re-membling of your destiny as a luminous strand within the great web of life.

Each weekend intensive builds upon the other. These powerful wisdom teachings in earth-honoring ceremony and compassionate healing service for personal and planetary transformation are for both current mesa carriers and those new to this lineage tradition. All that is required is an open heart and a willingness to be present.

Register early as class size is limited to a maximum of 25 participants.

Your dedicated and experienced teachers are:

Bonnie Glass-Coffin, Ph.D., is a Professor of Anthropology at Utah State University as well as a visionary, shamanic adept, and impassioned bridge-builder committed to sharing what she knows and the transformations she has experienced with others in service to the emergence of a New Earth. She has studied with Peruvian shamanic healers since 1982 and is author of The Gift of Life: Female Spirituality and Healing in Northern Peru as well as many other scholarly articles on Peruvian shamanism. She began her apprenticeship with don Oscar and the Pachakuti Mesa Tradition in 2005. She is thrilled to be able to offer these wisdom teachings as a mechanism for continuing to build sacred community here in Logan.

Carol Rydell is a soul coach, teacher, healer, priestess and the founder of Celestial Earth. She brings embodied oneness - anchoring qualities of courage, transparency, authenticity, unconditional self-love, trust, practicality, co-creative brilliance and love for all beings. Her teachings and transmissions support natural alignment with the Soul and its inner wisdom. Carol is a culturally diverse ceremonialist who has studied indigenous teachings and practices from around the world.

Both Bonnie and Carol are available to teach in your area. If interested, please contact either of them at the email address below.
