Departmental Advising

Taggart Student Center, Room 304
<http://www.usu.edu/advising/advisors>
(435) 797-3373

A key element of the advising process is the advisor-student relationship. A faculty, professional, or peer advisor helps a student complete his or her educational goals, while becoming informed about educational options, graduation requirements, and academic policies. Advisors also help students clarify educational goals, plan educational programs, utilize the resources available at USU, develop decision-making skills, and become independent learners.

Career

Career Services

University Inn, ground level, Room 102
<http://www.usu.edu/career>
(435) 797-7777

The Career Services Center at Utah State University is the link between students and meaningful career employment. The career coaches at the Center provide students, alumni, and community members the opportunity to:

- Explore majors and career alternatives. These career exploration activities, coupled with one-on-one career counseling sessions, allow students to make informed decisions about academic majors and careers.
- Obtain career-related internship experience while gaining academic credit, pay, and success in the job market!
- Plan for graduate school by taking various entrance exams in our Testing Services area and create effective application materials.
- Secure career employment by active participation in: career planning, resume/cover letter preparation, networking, interviewing, Career Fair & Expos, employer and alumni contacts, and a variety of career search technologies.
