

Utah SAF Dinner Meeting

Oaks, Pigs, Cork, & Wine: Sustainable Woodland Management in Spain

What: Come have dinner and a drink with friends and hear about woodlands and woodland management in Spain from Dr. Jim Long of USU.

When: Wednesday, February 11, 2004; social time with cash bar starting at 6:30 pm; dinner about 7 pm with Jim's program following.

Where: Jeremiah's Restaurant Meeting Room, 1307 West 1200 South, Ogden; just east of I-15 at the Ogden 12th Street Exit, next to the Best Western High Country Inn

Cost: $16.50 includes dinner, tax, tip, room charges, etc.; pay when you get there (check or cash). Cash bar will be available. College students half price.

Menu: Choose from chicken teriyaki or roast beef; includes salad, warm rolls, vegetable, potato/rice, dessert, and beverage.

Contact: Lana Barr (lbarr@cc.usu.edu; 435-797-0242) if you plan on attending and tell her which meal you would like. Cancel by Monday morning 2/9 or we'll have to pay for your meal.

Questions? Contact:

Mike Kuhns
Associate Professor, Extension Forester
& Utah Chapter SAF Chair
Dept. of Forest, Range, & Wildlife Sciences
5230 Old Main Hill
Utah State University
Logan, UT 84322-5230
Phone: (435)797-4056
Fax: (435)797-3796
E-mail: mike.kuhns@usu.edu