Robert B. Keiter

The Past and Future of Public Land Policy

Professor Keiter is the Wallace Stegner Professor of Law at the University of Utah S. J. Quinney College of Law. He is one of the pre-eminent legal scholars on Natural Resources and Public Lands Policy. He is a prolific writer and speaker and very knowledgeable on resource issues facing the Intermountain West. His books include Keeping Faith with Nature: Ecosystems, Democracy and America's Public Lands and The Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem: Redefining America's Wilderness Heritage.

Introductions: Regional Forester Jack Troyer
Closing Comments: Deputy Regional Forester Mary Wagner

Sponsored by the following: The Wildlife Society, Society for Range Management, River Management Society, International Association for Society & Natural Resources, American Fisheries Society, and Society of American Foresters.

February 26, 2007

5:00 PM Social: Cash Bar and Heavy Hors d’oeuvres
6:30 Professor Keiter

The meeting will be held at the Eccles Center at 2415 Washington Boulevard in Ogden. Heavy Hors d’oeuvres will be served. Cost is $10/person.

By February 21, please send your check, payable to Utah Chapter SAF, to either:
Ron Gropp, Utah Division of Forestry, Fire, and State Lands, 1594 West N. Temple Suite 3520, or PO Box 145703, SLC, UT 84114-5703
Frank Roth, 2048 N 775 E, N. Ogden, UT 84414.

Questions, call Frank at (801) 782-3118. Non–members and guests are encouraged to attend.