

Lynx Workshop Big Piney, Wyoming November 2-3, 2000

- WHEN: November 2, 10am to 5:30pm
November 3, all day starting at 7:30am
- WHAT: November 2, Review research and studies of lynx range and habitat and snowshoe hare habitat.
November 3, Observe lynx range and selected winter, summer, and denning habitat; and snowshoe hare transects.
- WHERE: November 2, Marbleton Fire Hall, Marbleton, Wyoming.
November 3, Big Piney Ranger District, Bridger-Teton National Forest (field day).

Draft Agenda

Day 1: Thursday, November 2, 2000, Marbleton Fire Hall

- | | |
|---|-----------------------|
| 1000 Getting Started/Ground Rules | Bill Noblitt |
| 1015 Welcome | Jack Blackwell |
| 1030 Lynx Where We Have Been And Where We Are Going | Bill Ruediger |
| 1100 National Lynx Hair Snare Presence/Absence Survey | Jim Claar |
| 1130 Utah State University Snowshoe Hare Research | John Shaw |
| 1200 Lunch (on your own) | |
| 1330 Wyoming Game And Fish Department Lynx Research/Studies | Bob Oakleaf |
| 1430 Bridger Teton Vegetation And Snowshoe Hare Work In Lynx Habitat | Ramon Borrego |
| 1500 Break | |

1530 Rocky Mountain Research Station Lynx Research At Seely
Lake And In The Wyoming Range

John Squires

1730 Open Discussion

Day 2: Friday, November 3, 2000

0730 Meet At Daniel Junction

0800 Depart To Discuss Habitat Used By Lynx On Big Piney
Ranger District

Raymon
Borrego
Bob Oakleaf
John Squires

1600 Depart For Home

Hotels:

Marbleton, Wyoming (suburb of Big Piney)

Marbleton Inn

307-276-
5231

Pinedale (20 mi from Big Piney, yet closer to departure to the field)

Pinedale Best Western (during summer were not honoring Fed gov per diem rates)

307-367-
6869

Wagon Wheel

307-367-
2871

ZZZZZ

307-367-
2871

Workshop Sponsored By:

