C. Workshop on August 19, 2016, to be hosted by Trustee Johnson at Futura Industries in Clearfield, Utah

More information on the workshop will be provided in the near future.

D. Date of next meeting of the Board of Trustees

The next meeting of the Board of Trustees will be held on Friday, October 21, 2016, on the USU Campus.

II. PRESIDENT’S AGENDA

President Albrecht noted that the Trustees were provided with a list of recent and upcoming events. He shared that USU is facing many challenges; many coming from Washington D.C. regarding the issue of accreditation. Senator Lee recently introduced a bill that would eliminate regional accreditation bodies and put accreditation in the hands of individual states. Universities are also dealing with a dramatic increase of litigation. Utah State University’s next comprehensive review will be spring 2017. Provost Cockett and her team are preparing for the review. The Trustees are required to be engaged in the process.

Chair Jibson extended praise to the President, administration and faculty for a wonderful commencement season. President Albrecht noted that Sydney Peterson does yeoman service and makes sure that everything is organized and goes well. Thanks in large measure to her.

Chair Jibson asked if any items needed to be moved from the Consent Agenda for further discussion.

Trustee Nixon asked that the minutes from the Regular meeting held on May 6, 2016, be pulled from the Consent Agenda for the following correction:

Resolution 16-05-21 Student Fee and Housing Systems Revenue Bonds, Series 2016
With respect to the approval by the board for the revenue bonds to pay for the Blue Square acquisition. Trustee Nixon formally abstained from the vote due to the possibility of a perceived conflict of interest.

Action: Trustee Nixon moved the approval of the consent agenda. Trustee Gillmor seconded the motion. The voting was unanimous in the affirmative.

IV. ACTION AGENDA

A. Design for the Interlocking Cross-Laminated Timbers – ICLT Building, a non-state funded project [Resolution 16-06-15] (Appendix P)

Vice President Cowley explained that this is not a typical building. This proposal is to approve the design phase of this non-state-funded project. The United States Forest Service has provided a grant to fund the design. The building will be located at the Kaysville Botanical Center. The building would be constructed from beetle kill wood. The goal is to make a future market for this wood.

Action: Trustee Holland moved the approval of Resolution 16-06-15, Design for the Interlocking Cross-Laminated Timbers – ICLT Building, a non-state-funded project. Trustee Huntsman seconded the motion. The voting was unanimous in the affirmative.

B. Capital Development Priority List for Fiscal Year 2017-2018 [Resolution 16-06-16] (Appendix Q)
Vice President Cowley explained that a Capital Development Priority list of potential state-funded projects is forwarded yearly to the legislature for approval. This list is voted on by the Trustees. It is then sent to the Board of Regents and the State Building Board. This year Utah State is submitting a single request; $25,000,000 for the Biology and Natural Resources building renovation.

Action: Trustee Thomas moved the approval of Resolution 16-06-15, the Capital Development Priority List for Fiscal Year 2017-2018. Trustee Huntsman seconded the motion. The voting was unanimous in the affirmative.

C. Utah State University 2016-2017 Budgets [Resolution 16-06-16] (Appendix Q)

Vice President Cowley summarized the Utah State University 2016-2017 budgets for the Trustees. He explained that, in general, the auxiliaries are doing well in every area. The Campus Store has faced some real challenges in the past but is doing better with a textbook rental program. Dining Services goes along with housing; housing is full for this coming year. Parking is doing fine and they are hoping to put money away for the next parking terrace. The Student Health and Wellness Center had a fee increase last year and is looking ahead to a healthy year. The Taggart Student Center is fine and the University Inn is hoping to improve next year. The biggest challenge of USU Eastern’s auxiliaries is the bookstore due to volume; we are working with them to improve. Other regional campuses have decided to use the Logan bookstore. Athletics is an ongoing challenge. This year Athletics will break even with some one-time dollars coming from the NCAA. USU Eastern Athletics is predicting to break even as well.

Action: Trustee Watterson moved the approval of Resolution 16-06-16, Utah State University 2016-2017 Budgets. Trustee Huntsman seconded the motion. The voting was unanimous in the affirmative.

Action: Trustee Huntsman made a motion to adjourn the Regular Meeting. Trustee Watterson seconded the motion. The voting was unanimous in the affirmative.

The regular meeting adjourned at 10:37 a.m.
