

Date: Dec 5, 2008

The employee identification card (USU ID) allows for:

1. Access to the University's libraries.
2. A 10% discount at the USU Bookstores.
3. Access to the University's physical education facilities.
4. A 10% discount in USU Dining Services with an aggie express account (discount available at: Marketplace, The Hub, Quadside Cafe, The Skyroom).

Physical education facilities include:

1. HPER facilities: swimming pools, courts, weight room (now called the "employee wellness center")
2. Fieldhouse*: walking track, downstairs courts, upstairs squash court, new ICON spinning room
3. Outdoor facilities: volleyball court, track, walking routes, tennis courts, disc golf

[*The only exception to physical education facilities is the Fieldhouse upstairs Fitness Center. The equipment was purchased with student fees, and employees are required to pay an additional fee to use the area based upon an agreement with Campus Recreation which upgrades equipment and manages the area.]

The USU ID card is also available to:

1. The spouse/partner of a USU benefit-eligible employee.
2. Visiting professors and their spouses, and USDA and state agency employees, while they are working on the USU campus, whether they are paid by USU, federal or state government, or their home university / country upon the written request of their department head / agency director and the approval of the Director of Human Resources.
3. Retired USU employees are allowed access to USU physical education facilities and libraries with a USU ID card. They continue to receive tuition discounts and discounts at the USU Bookstore, dining services, and parking services. They also retain the ability to audit courses, and have an aggiemail computer account.

The cost of the USU ID Card is $15.00. Cards are available in the TSC Card Office. Info: (435) 797-3852.

This is the practice of Utah State University's administration, and implemented by Human Resources.

Caroline Shugart

Caroline Shugart
Wellness Coordinator
Office of Human Resources
Utah State University
8800 Old Main Hill
Logan, UT 84322-8800

BrandE Faupell

BrandE Faupell
Director of Human Resources
Office of Human Resources
Utah State University
8800 Old Main Hill
Logan, UT 84322-8800