Please answer the following questions based on the presentation delivered on the first day of class and the information on the class web site. Turn this form in by the end of the second week of class.

1. On what date will Assessment 5 be administered during class? _______________________

2. If a student’s final point total is 821, what will that student’s final grade be? ____________

3. When are make-ups for Assessments administered? ________________________________

4. What percentage of credit is subtracted from late work for each day it’s late? ______________

5. Can Written Work from Part 4 be revised for credit? ________________________________

6. What are the professor’s office hours and where is his office? _________________________

7. Does an approved In-Class Discussion Form have to be turned with a Paper? __________

8. Is the year 600 BCE earlier or later than the year 500 BCE? _________________________

9. Can points earned in Group/Written Work be carried over to In-Class Exercises? ________

10. Should headings (name, date, title) of Written Work be single- or double-spaced? ________

Tell me something special and distinctive about yourself. What makes you different and unique?
____________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________

*************************************************** *************************
Please print your name on the first line, and then sign and date this document on the second. I will not accept work from any student who has not signed and returned this form to me by the second week of classes.

Your signature below confirms that you have read and understand the University’s policy on Academic Honesty, especially as it pertains to issues involving plagiarism. There is a copy of that policy on the back of this page (taken from the Student Code).

Name (printed): _____________________________________________________________

Signature and Date: _________________________________________________________
SECTION V-3. University Standards of Student Conduct

All Misconduct violations (or suspected Misconduct violations) shall be reported to the Vice President for Student Services by faculty, staff, and students who have knowledge or information regarding the same.

A. Academic Integrity — “The Honor System”

Acts of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to:

1. Cheating: (1) using or attempting to use or providing others with any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, examinations, or in any other academic exercise or activity, including working in a group when the instructor has designated that the quiz, test, examination, or any other academic exercise or activity be done “individually”; (2) depending on the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for oneself, in taking an examination or preparing academic work; (4) acquiring tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty member, staff member, or another student without express permission; (5) continuing to write after time has been called on a quiz, test, examination, or any other academic exercise or activity; (6) submitting substantially the same work for credit in more than one class, except with prior approval of the instructor; or (7) engaging in any form of research fraud.

2. Falsification: altering or fabricating any information or citation in an academic exercise or activity.

3. Plagiarism: representing, by paraphrase or direct quotation, the published or unpublished work of another person as one’s own in any academic exercise or activity without full and clear acknowledgment. It also includes using materials prepared by another person or by an agency engaged in the sale of term papers or other academic materials.

A. The penalties which the University may impose on a student for a Misconduct violation are:

1. Warning or reprimand-written or verbal.

2. Probation-continued attendance at the University predicated upon the student satisfying certain requirements as specified in a written notice of probation. Probation is for a designated period of time and includes the probability of more severe disciplinary penalties if the student does not comply with the specified requirements or is found to be violating any University Standards during the probationary period. The student must request termination of the probation in writing.

3. Suspension-temporary dismissal from the University for a specified time, after which the student is eligible to return. Conditions for readmission may be specified.

4. Expulsion-permanent dismissal from the University.

5. Withholding of transcripts for refusal to return University property or to pay University debts. (See: Section V-3.B.16. and 17.)

6. Temporary and/or permanent removal from a class. (See: Section V-3.D.)

7. Payment of restitution to the University or, when University intervention is deemed appropriate, to another individual for damages or losses.

9. Referral to psychological counseling or to the Student Wellness Center for assessment, evaluation, education, and treatment, when necessary.

10. Other disciplinary actions which are appropriate to the violation(s).