

Start the Semester SMART

Making an extra effort to prepare for the upcoming semester will set you up for success. Follow to checklist below to identify what you need to do to before the semester starts.

Accessing Canvas

- I have access to my courses on Canvas
- I know where and how to check for assignments due
- I know where to submit assignments

Location

- I know the route from my home to campus
- I know how long it takes me to commute
- I've identified study spaces that work well for me

Instructors

- I know who my instructors are
- I know my instructor's preferred contact method
- I know my instructor's office hours

Support & Involvement

- I know where to find counseling, advising, academic, and wellness support
- I am aware of clubs and organizations I can join

Class Prep

- I know what materials and textbooks are required for the class
- I have purchased necessary materials for the class

