NSE Fee Breakdown for One Semester Exchange (fees paid to USU and NSE)

The fees below are based on academic year 2023-2024 costs. If tuition for the semester you plan to study abroad is not yet available, budget the current amount of tuition + 5% estimated increase; fee information for the following academic year comes out in April each academic year prior.

Application/Placement Fees:
- Paid to USU:
  - USU app fee: $150
- Paid to NSE:
  - NSE app fee: $150

Total Application/Placement Fees: $300

Deposit:
- Paid to USU:
  - Deposit due 2 weeks after acceptance by USU: $500

Program Fees:
- Paid to USU:
  - Domestic students studying in another US state or territory: $450
  - International students studying in another US state or territory: $575
  - Canada: $700
  - Student body fees: $458.77
  - Less the deposit: -$500
  - Total Program Fee: $408.77

Tuition:
- Paid to USU:
  - Plateau tuition (student body fees will be grouped with your program fee when placed on your account) based on your resident status, off the tuition tables.

Insurance:
- Requirements vary depending on location

For summer exchange only, we are able to do increments of .25. Talk with your study abroad advisor about how that would work for your program of interest.