011 Primary Athletics Logo

All logo use must adhere to Utah State University’s Visual Identity Program (VIP), follow university policies, and brand standards. Appropriate presentation of the primary athletics logo is below. Logos may not be stretched, obscured, combined with other logos, or modified in any way. Pairing text or other elements with official marks, is considered alteration of marks and is not allowed.

The primary logo must be placed on all printed and electronic communications, both internal and external, for instant brand recognition. If the primary paired logo does not appear on the front of printed items, it must be used on the back of every item. This requirement applies to all publications and branded goods. Please note if the primary mark is not on the front of the item, the university name (Utah State University, USU, or Utah State, etc.) should always be placed on the front. This helps to quickly identify the university, a primary function of the university brand identity program.

The primary athletics logo must have a proportionally weighted role. As the publication size increases, the minimum size of the logo should increase proportionally. The logo must be sized to 25% width of the longest dimension for the visible area. The logo should never be smaller than 5/8 of an inch tall for the vertical logo and 1/2-inch tall for the horizontal logo.

The athletics mark should only be reproduced in the colors shown in section 02.
012 Secondary marks

Athletics secondary marks can only be used in conjunction with the primary athletics mark, however the two cannot be combined or used in close proximity. Secondary logos may be used in print and web communications, and on apparel and merchandise. Please be discerning in use, bearing in mind that this mark needs to complement the primary athletics mark.

Secondary logos are not to be used as part of a web header. For information on web branding please see the USU Web Identity Standards and Guidelines here.

Secondary logos can only be used in the approved color palette shown in section 2. All secondary marks have an area of isolation that must be adhered to.

Please contact Heidi Adams, Director, Trademark Licensing at heidi.adams@usu.edu for more details.
013 Area of isolation

To maintain the integrity of the athletics logos and wordmarks, space around the marks must be kept clear of competing visual elements and wording to prevent confusion and competition. As a general rule no logos or text should touch or overlap with the athletics marks. See the proper area of isolation below.

Area of isolation “X” is equal to the height of the “S” in the U State as illustrated.
Area of isolation “X” is equal to the height of the “A” in “Aggies” as illustrated.

Area of isolation “X” is equal to the height of the “U” in “Utah State” as illustrated.

Area of isolation “X” is equal to the height of the “head” on “Big Blue” as illustrated.
01.3 Social Media

The university Visual Identity Program requires official social avatars to be used on all university social media accounts, replacing all avatars and social media profile pictures.

Social media guidelines and best practices are available through the USU Social Media Style Guide and online: usu.edu/prm/identity/socialmedia.cfm

AVATAR USE - All uses of Utah State’s social media avatars must adhere to Utah State’s Visual Identity Program and follow university policies on brand standards. The avatars may not be stretched, obscured, modified, or combined with other logos.

University social media avatars are not to be used in place of official university logos and are only to be used as social media profile pictures. Social avatars are not logos or design elements and should not be used as such.

ACCOUNT NAMES - All official Utah State social media accounts must include “USU,” “Utah State,” or “Utah State University” in the social media account’s name and description. Departments and programs should also include their college’s full name in their account description or bio.

ACCOUNT CREATION - Creation of new Utah State-affiliated social media accounts require pre-approval from Utah State’s Social Media Coordinator. All account creation requests are promptly responded to: social@usu.edu.

Selecting the appropriate typeface for publications is essential, depending on the purpose of the publication and the audience it targets. When producing communication materials, various weights of fonts should be used for headlines, body copy, captions, etc. The examples shown are a small selection of the many variations available.

When mixing fonts, it is key to maintain consistency and limit their uses. For example, it is not recommended that all fonts be used at once. You are encouraged to limit your selection to two contrasting fonts on any publication. By choosing certain fonts and staying with them, you help to create a “family look” for your publications and branded goods.

Other fonts may be used but these should be used as a base for your communications.

A custom athletics typeface has been designed with unique letter parts that are carried throughout the alphabet. These unique characteristics form a distinctive, readily identifiable typeface. The letterforms are bold and athletic. Consistent use will enhance the overall identity, promote consistency across athletics and build equity in the athletics brand. There is no lowercase version. Do not try to “make” a lowercase version. Not intended for large bodies of copy; use of this font should be limited to no more than one sentence.

04.2 Business Cards

Business cards are considered an “official document” and the format is standard for all university colleges & departments.

Business cards are available in the following template. An additional name may be placed above the address.

The bottom right corner of the card is for the program's name and the back of the card can be used to showcase your design element.

Only Aggie Blue or black ink may be used on the front of the card.
04.3 Envelope

Envelopes are considered an “official document” and the format is standard for all university colleges & departments.
Powerpoint templates are available from your marketing and administration office.

The official USU template may also be used and can be downloaded here: https://www.usu.edu/utm/visual-identity/templates/USUPowerPoint.pptx
05.1 Branded Goods

Please note that merchandise items such as T-shirts, sweatshirts, mugs, uniforms, and other similar “branded goods” (swag) that are produced with Utah State University’s name and/or marks, are considered licensable and are subject to the University’s Trademark Licensing Policies & Procedures.

Maintaining a consistent high-quality look for the various “branded goods” ensures that the associations with Utah State University are appropriate and positive each time the items are used. These guidelines are intended to reinforce proper usage of the university logo while allowing for some flexibility due to the diversity of items. All “branded goods” must have a primary logo on the item. Designs can appear on merchandise, however, the primary paired logo must also be included on all items in a secondary location.

When applying the designs to “branded goods” university logos must be black, white, Aggie Blue (Pantone 593), or pewter. Do not place university logos on red products.

The printing of merchandise and other branded items must be pre-approved. Please provide electronic artwork to the Trademark Licensing office prior to production.

All review requests are promptly handled. Email designs to: trademark.licensing@usu.edu.
