TRADITION
DID YOU KNOW: In 1901, the USU faculty adopted mock blue and orange for the college colors. The name Aggie had a more informal beginning, with the first athletic team called “The Farmers.” Aggies, a contraction of agriculturalists, was first used in the late 1890s, though not until 1905 the local paper called the various athletic teams “Big Blue” — an apparent reference to the Blue Ox of Paul Bunyan stories.

DID YOU KNOW: In 1888, the first version chose a blue and white “A,” placed on the south side of Old Main. However, a “Y” (from the old Y-shaped tower, can be seen throughout the valley, especially at night when it shines white. For special occasions and athletic wins the “A” shines blue.
