

Damen

Relative Pronoun Practice

Give the proper form of the Latin relative pronoun in the following sentences. Supply prepositions, if necessary.

1. This is the woman who caused the war.
2. I know the man who won the war.
3. This is the war which he fought at Troy.
4. I have seen the woman whom he stole.
5. There is the horse (equus) from which they jumped.
6. I have visited the land in which she lives.
7. Helen was the woman whose face launched a thousand ships.
8. Those men are the Trojans whose city was destroyed.
9. The man/men to whom you gave the money ran away.
10. Whom the gods love die/dies young.
11. What you did was unspeakable.
12. Pericles addressed the mothers whose children had died.
13. Did you find the sword/s (gladius) with which they killed the consul?