

Participle Practice: Uses of Participles

Translate into English the following Latin sentences or phrases containing participles.

Cicerone dicente / Cicerone imperatore / Cicerone solo tyranno opprimente

libero oppresso

tyranno liberum opprimente libero a tyranno oppresso aliquo pacem petente dono a tyranno accepto audiendum est

verba magistri audienda sunt pueris puellisque pecunia tibi non desideranda est consilium bonum omnibus legendum est dona a Graeco nobis delenda erant

Translate the following phrases into Latin.

When the leader abandons us, . . . (literally: With the leader abandoning us, . . .)

The leader must abandon us. (lit. We must be abandoned by the leader.)

Although the slave was banished, . . .

The leader had to regain power.