

2026 PARENT & FAMILY HANDBOOK

UtahStateUniversity

DEAR AGGIE PARENTS AND FAMILIES

Welcome to Utah State University, Home of the Aggies.

Your partnership in your student's success matters. Thank you for the encouragement and support you provide as your student begins or continues their journey as an Aggie. Family support matters so much in helping students to be successful in their college journey, and I am excited for us to partner with you. This handbook is designed to be a quick guide to the resources and contacts you will need to support them at the right time.

As president of Utah State University, my top priority is to remain focused on students and true to our land-grant mission of learning, discovery and engagement. USU is an R1 research university with a statewide mission, and our work starts with expanding opportunity, strengthening success, and removing barriers wherever they appear.

We remain focused on affordability and value. Thanks to the generosity of our donors and the State of Utah, we provided $92 million in scholarships to more than 13,000 students last year.

This has been a period of meaningful progress across the Aggie community. This past fall, we welcomed our largest-ever class of first-time Utah students, and our overall enrollment grew 3.2% to nearly 30,000 students statewide. We also launched Utah's first four-year Doctor of Veterinary Medicine program, with our inaugural class beginning coursework in August. And this spring, we opened our first campus on tribal lands in Monument Valley, bringing higher education directly to the Navajo Nation and furthering our land-grant commitment to serve every corner of Utah.

USU's impact is felt statewide. We are the largest employer in Cache County and the seventh-largest in Utah.

Last year, we celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Undergraduate Research program at USU, one of the oldest and most respected in the country. Undergraduate research is central to who we are. It connects students with faculty mentors, builds career-ready skills, and opens doors to internships, graduate education, and future careers. USU secured $517.1 million in sponsored research awards, advancing innovation that benefits students, communities and industries across Utah and beyond.

We are honored to have you as part of our university community, and I am grateful to partner with you in supporting your student as they learn, grow, and achieve their goals at Utah State.

Thank you for being part of the Aggie family!

Go Aggies!

Basics

- What were the 3 most important takeaways for you during orientation?

- How often do you expect to communicate with your student? Via what modes of communication?

Safety

- How safe is Logan compared to where your student currently lives? How do they feel about navigating the safety of a new place?

- What are warning signs that a student's stress has turned to distress? What steps can you take for their mental safety?

Finances

- Who is responsible for paying tuition and other related costs?

- Do you expect your student to get a job while in school? How many hours do you think they should work?

Academics

- What are your expectations for your student's course of study? How can you help your student decide which program is the best fit for them?

Social Life

- How can you help your student balance academic and extracurricular commitments?

Health & Wellness

- Does your student know their health history? Are they still under your insurance or are they getting their own plan?

PARENT & FAMILY WEEKEND

Parent & Family Weekend at Utah State is September 24-27, 2026.

It's a special time for the whole family to come together and celebrate what it means to be an Aggie. WHAT IS CONNECTIONS?

usu.edu/connections

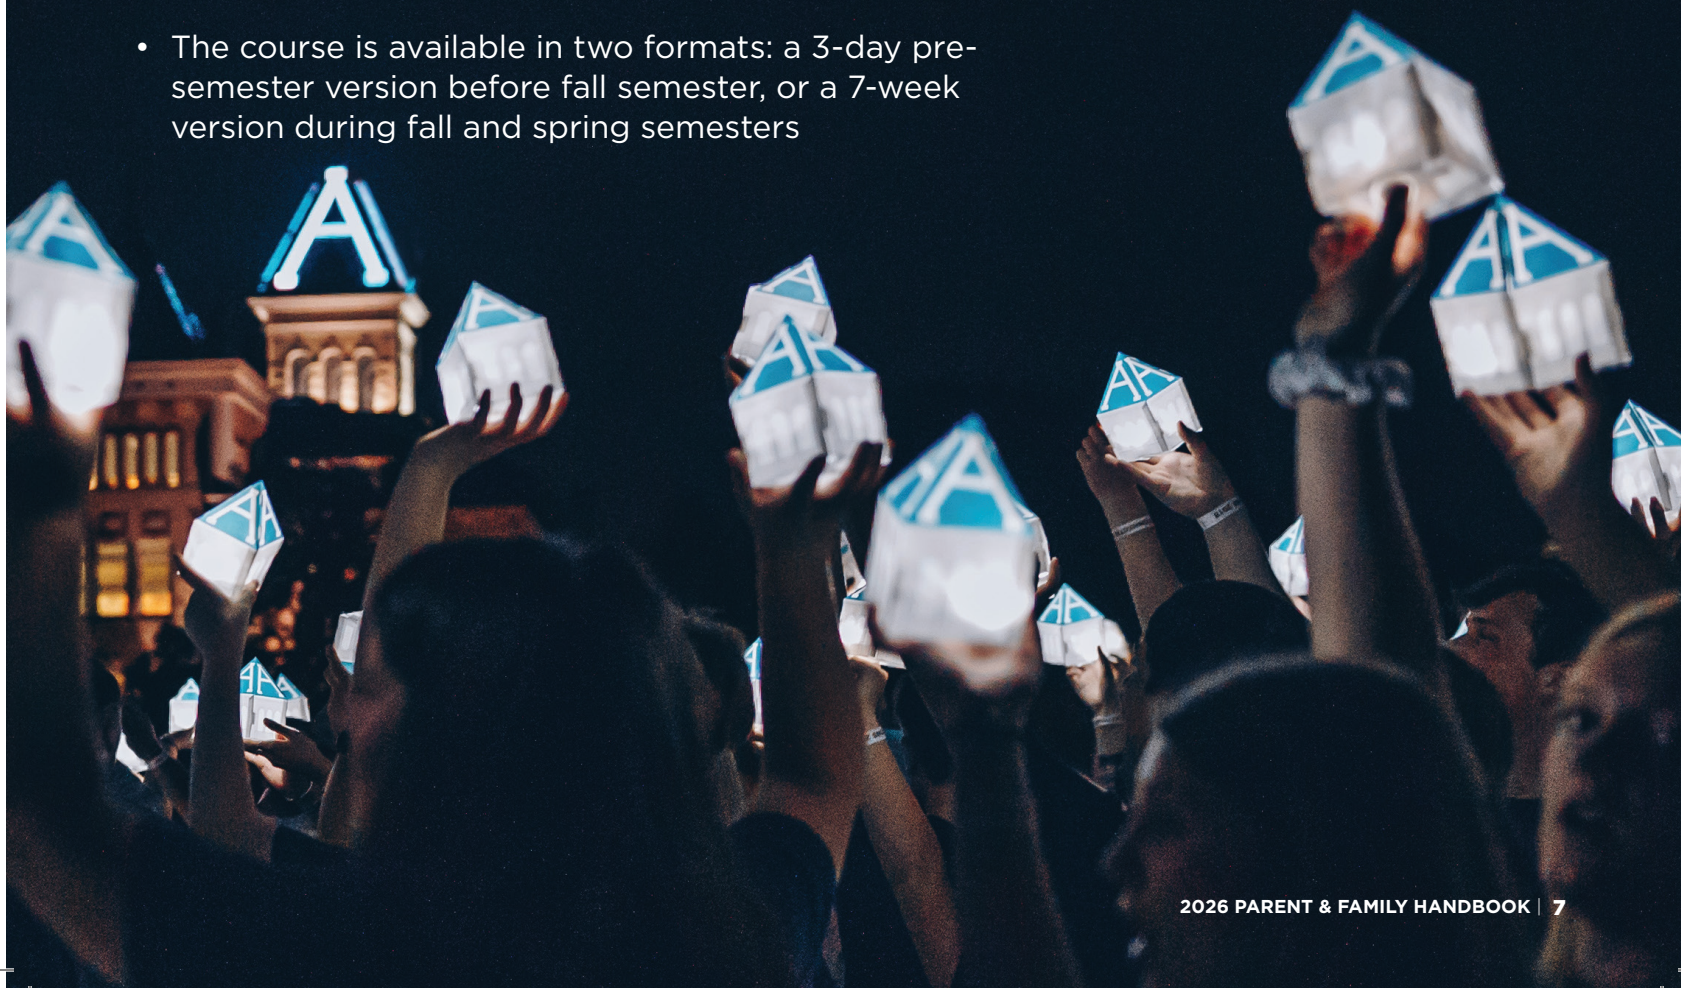

USU 1010: Connections is a two-credit academic course that helps new Aggies successfully transition to college life. While optional, it's highly recommended for students to develop habits of mind for success at USU and beyond. The course concludes with the Luminary procession, a cherished Aggie tradition where students walk to the quad in a symbolic celebration of their journey. Families and supporters are encouraged to stand on the quad and cheer on their Aggies.

Quick Facts:

- 75% of first-year students take USU 1010
- 91% of Connections students say they learned how to better engage themselves in the process of becoming an educated person
- All students can expect personal mentorship from a USU instructor and a peer mentor during their first year
- The course is available in two formats: a 3-day pre-semester version before fall semester, or a 7-week version during fall and spring semesters

"My instructor was very effective in helping me transition to Utah State University. She helped us know how to read a class syllabus and encouraged us to stay organized. She gave us a taste of the different programs we can become involved in, such as the Honors Program, Community-Engaged Learning, and the Study Abroad Program."

AFFORDABILITY

usu.edu/financial-support

At Utah State, we are committed to helping you and your student navigate the financial aspects of college. We provide clear information about the costs of attendance along with tools, guidance, and resources to help manage expenses.

Learn more at usu.edu/financial-support/coa.

Tuition & Fees

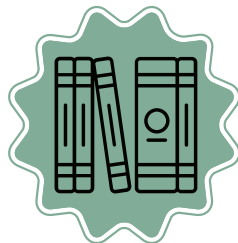

Each year, Utah State publishes a tuition and fee table that outlines costs based on credit hours, residency, and program, including both tuition and student fees for campus services.

You can find this at usu.edu/registrar/tuition.

Credit Load

Because 12-18 credits are the same price, students can save thousands of dollars in tuition and fees by taking 15 credits each semester, rather than 12. Every student is different, but overall, students who take 15 credits have higher GPAs than those who take fewer.

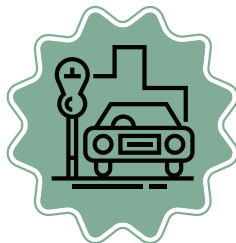

Other Expenses

Textbooks and Course Materials

$250/semester

Aggie Access provides students taking undergraduate courses (level 0000-5999) with all required textbooks each semester for a flat rate of $250 for fall, $250 for spring, and $150 for summer.

Parking

On-campus Permit:
$90-300/school year.
Visit parking.usu.edu for more information.

Save money by leaving the car at home and using Logan's fare-free bus system or Aggie Blue Bike's free bike rental.

Housing & Dining

Prices vary based on room preference and meal plan (pgs 40-42).

On-campus housing includes city utilities, gas, internet, and free laundry facilities.

Save money by using Dining Dollars for regular food purchases around campus.

Credits	Resident	Nonresident
12 Credits Per Semester (5 Years)	$43,895.90	$128,197.50
VS.
15 Credits Per Semester (4 Years)	$35,116.72	$102,630.00

Federal Aid (FAFSA)

usu.edu/financial-support/federalaid

The FAFSA is the first step in determining eligibility for most types of financial aid, including some scholarships offered by USU. Encourage your student to complete the FAFSA each year to be considered for federal grants, loans, and work-study opportunities. The application is free and online at fafsa.gov.

GRANTS

Free money funded by the government.

FEDERAL WORK STUDY

Job-based funding for students with financial need that allows them to earn money to help pay education expenses. FAFSA submission is required.

EDUCATIONAL LOANS

Borrowed money that is required to be repaid later. Student loans, private loans, and parent loans are available to help cover education-related expenses.

Scholarship Portal

usu.edu/scholarships

USU has a scholarship portal to help students find and apply for scholarships all in one place. Once your student has been admitted, they can create a profile, answer a few questions, and get matched to hundreds of scholarships offered by USU and outside organizations.

TouchNet & Payment Plans

usu.edu/registrar/tuition

Through TouchNet, students and authorized family members can review account balances, make one-time payments, and set up payment plans to spread tuition costs over the semester. Students can access TouchNet through the MyUSU portal and create authorized users as needed.

USU ID

usucard.usu.edu

A Passport to Campus

The USU ID is securely stored digitally on a student's smartphone and watch with a mobile credential. It is added to the student's Apple Wallet, Samsung Wallet, or Google Wallet, making it convenient for accessing door entry (for on-campus housing residents), gym areas, libraries, dining locations, activities, student labs, testing centers, health centers, the campus store, and much more. Students can also track meal plans, Dining Dollars, and Aggie Express funds with the USU ID.

Other Resources

- U.S. Passport Services
- Student Event Ticket Sales
- Aggie Express
- Credit Card & ID Card Reader
- Rental Devices
- Dining Dollars
- Meal Plans

Aggie Express & Dining Dollars

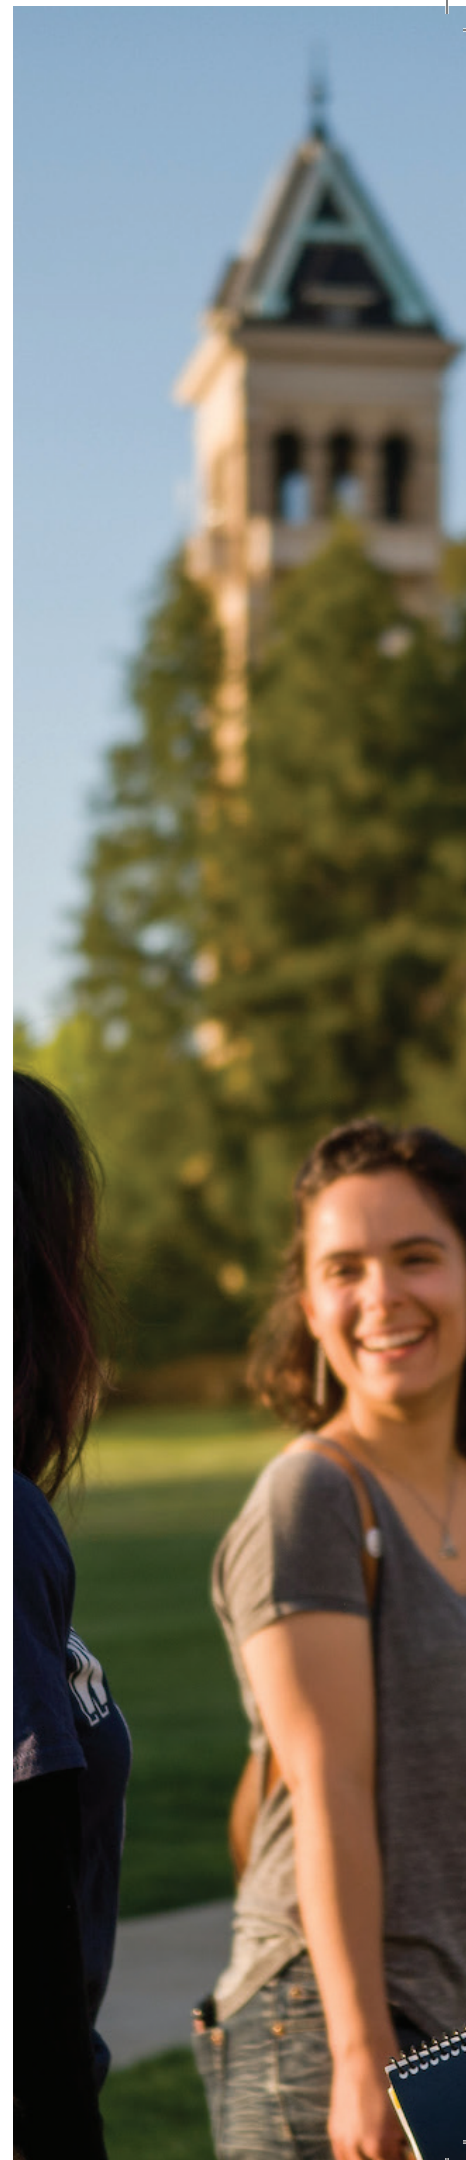

Aggie Express and Dining Dollars are declining-balance accounts stored on the student's account. Funds are loaded by the student and carry over from semester to semester. Many locations on campus accept both Aggie Express and Dining Dollars, with a 10% discount at dining locations when paying with Dining Dollars.

- ★ Aggie Express and Dining Dollars deposits can be made within the Transact Accounts app, at the deposit machines on the first floor of the TSC & Library (by the entrance), or at the Aggie Card Office.

WELCOME TO THE AGGIE FAMILY!

usu.edu/alumni

As parents and families of Utah State University students, you're an important part of the Aggie Family. Whether this is your first connection to USU or you're already part of our alumni tradition, we want you to feel at home here. The Alumni Association is here to support you with helpful resources, guidance, and opportunities to stay connected, so you can encourage your student's success and strengthen your own lifelong connection with Utah State.

Key Traditions & Campus Connections

Homecoming

A week that brings students, alumni, and the community together to celebrate school pride.

True Aggie Night

Becoming a True Aggie is one of Utah State's most cherished symbols of Aggie spirit. Students earn the title with a kiss on the A under a full moon, on Homecoming, or A-Day.

The Robins Awards

The Robins Awards are Utah State University's highest honors, celebrating students, faculty, and organizations for exceptional leadership, service, and achievement.

Get Involved with Alumni

Mentorship – Inspire future Aggies by sharing your vocational journey.

Connection – Stay up to date by following our social media channels.

Aggie License Plate Scholarship Program – Show your Aggie pride and support USU student scholarships by getting an A-plate for $35 a year.

AGGIE ICE CREAM

usu.edu/aggieicecream

With its origins in the basement of Old Main in 1890, the Aggie Creamery began by producing cheese and butter. In 1922, students had a new opportunity to make ice cream and the first Aggie Ice Cream storefront opened, featuring pineapple and raspberry ice cream. Today's favorite is the student-created Aggie Blue Mint flavor. Aggie Ice Cream is part of USU's Department of Nutrition, Dietetics and Food Sciences where food science students have gained real-world experience in dairy production with delicious results for more than 100 years.

AGGIE CHOCOLATE FACTORY

qanr.usu.edu/aggie-chocolate

The Aggie Chocolate Factory is a bean-to-bar chocolate processing facility established in 2018. It serves as a learning and research center focused on education, research, and outreach opportunities related to high-quality chocolate production. It also operates a gift shop where visitors and students can purchase products.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

involvement.usu.edu

USU Student Association (USUSA)

Every student at USU is a member of the student association. As such, they can actively participate in all activities, committees, clubs, events, and initiatives. Participation fosters a sense of belonging and community, develops skills highly sought after by employers, and encourages personal growth and exploration beyond academics. USUSA is an organization made by the students, for the students.

CAMPUS RECREATION

campusrec.usu.edu

USU offers countless ways for students to stay active, connect, and explore. From swimming, fitness classes, and intramural leagues to club sports like rugby, hockey, and ultimate frisbee, there's something for every interest and skill level. Students can join wellness workshops, meet with a registered dietitian, or train for certifications like CPR and lifeguarding. For gamers, the esports lab hosts tournaments and community events, while Outdoor Programs provides discounted rentals and gear for camping, climbing, and other adventures.

RECFEST

Students can kick off the fall semester and a new school year with Aggie RecFest! Typically held the Saturday before school starts, the Aggie Recreation Center and Aggie Legacy Fields are filled with inflatables, sand volleyball, lawn games, video games, and more. It's the perfect night to explore our facilities, talk to club sport teams, meet new people, and have fun.

CENTER FOR COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

usu.edu/community-engagement

At Utah State University, the Center for Community Engagement (CCE) helps students grow into thoughtful leaders and active citizens by connecting them to meaningful service and community-driven learning. Through seven distinct programs, the CCE gives students opportunities to explore their civic identity, develop leadership skills, and positively impact communities both locally and globally. These experiences empower students to apply their education in real-world settings, build confidence, and contribute to causes larger than themselves.

- Christensen Office of Service and Sustainability (COSAS) - Promotes life-long active citizenship through service and sustainability programming.
- Community-Engaged Learning - Integrates community engagement in education, enhancing learning, fostering civic responsibility, and empowering communities.
- Aggie Blue Bikes - Semester-long bike borrowing and repair access.
- Education Outreach - Mentor K-12 students in after-school programs.
- Utah Conservation Corps - Collaborate with land management agencies in Utah for natural resource conservation projects.
- Peace Corps Prep - Prepare for international development and Peace Corps service.
- One Utah Service Fellowship - Participate in meaningful and high-impact service to Utah.

No matter their interests, students can find a path to serve, lead, and make a difference while growing personally and professionally during their time at USU.

usu.edu/registrar/ferpa-info

Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA)

FERPA is a U.S. federal law that protects the privacy of student educational records. FERPA protects your student's rights by ensuring we don't release any information to anyone without their consent; that includes you, as parents and guardians. For you to have access to this information, your student will need to go to myid.usu.edu and assign you as a delegate. For more information, please visit the website above.

Delegates

To contact the university and request information about your student, you must be a delegate. Serving as a delegate is especially helpful if your student plans to take a deferment for church service, military duty, or other personal reasons.

Students should manage their own account where possible, but if they will not have access to their account while on leave, they may need a delegate such as a parent, spouse, or third-party to complete orientation, update records, or register for classes on their behalf. The delegate will need to have access to the student's preferred and recovery emails.

What Can Delegates Do?

Delegates serve as trusted partners who can help students manage important university tasks. Acting on behalf of a USU student, a delegate may:

- Access the student's records, including grades and financial information, through Banner.
- Update student information, reset passwords, or add additional multi-factor authentication methods.
- Add or drop classes and assist with registration tasks.

Login credentials will need to be obtained from your student, as delegates do not receive separate account access. Multi-Factor Authentication is required to log in to all USU accounts. Your student can add and remove your phone number or device to their account as needed.

AGGIE TIP

STUDENTS CAN SET UP AN AUTHORIZED USER IN TOUCHNET WHO CAN VIEW BALANCES AND MAKE PAYMENTS ON THEIR BEHALF.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

usu.edu/advising

Academic advisors are key partners in helping students navigate their educational journey. They work with students to connect their interests and goals with an intentional plan of study, creating a semester-by-semester roadmap from the first term through graduation. Regularly meeting with an advisor (at least once a semester) helps student stay on track, adjust their plans as their interests evolve, and make informed decisions. Families can support this process by encouraging their student to communicate openly with their advisor and take an active role in planning their academic path. As their plans shift and grow, keeping the advisor informed will help your student make the most of their college experience.

Schedule an appointment with an academic advisor at aggie.link/advising.

We recommend that your student meet with their advisor twice a school year: before Halloween and St. Patrick's Day.

Academic Resources

General Catalog

The USU General Catalog is your student's go-to guide for understanding their academic path at Utah State University. It provides clear information on degree requirements, course descriptions, academic policies, and important deadlines.

Degree Works

Degree Works is an online tool that helps your student track their progress toward graduation. It shows which requirements they've completed, what's still needed, and how future classes will fit into their degree plan. Students can navigate to Degree Works through their MyUSU Dashboard.

EXPLORATORY ADVISING

usu.edu/advising/exploratory

It's common for students to begin college unsure of their major or career path. Exploratory advisors are available to help students clarify their interests, strengths, and goals while learning about the many academic options available. Advisors can also introduce students to USU's Focus Areas, which group related majors into broad categories such as:

- Agriculture, Natural Resources & Environmental Sciences
- Applied & Clinical Health Sciences
- Communication, Organizations & Influence
- Humanities & Arts
- Physical Sciences, Engineering & Technology
- Social Sciences & Human Services

These areas allow students to explore multiple majors within similar career paths before deciding. Once a student has identified a major that fits their goals, they'll meet with an academic advisor in that department to review degree requirements and officially declare their program.

CENTER FOR ACADEMIC BELONGING & LEARNING EXCELLENCE

usu.edu/able

The Center for Academic Belonging & Learning Excellence (ABLE) supports students in building the skills and confidence needed to succeed academically while fostering a sense of connection on campus. ABLE offers resources such as academic success coaching, Peer Assisted Study Sessions (PASS), and programs specifically for first-generation and TRIO students.

Through personalized guidance and skill-building opportunities, ABLE helps students strengthen study habits, set goals, access campus resources, and navigate college more confidently. The center's mission is to empower students to take ownership of their success while ensuring they feel supported, connected, and capable throughout their university experience.

Many students fear struggling academically in college. Here's what high school seniors in a recent survey reported worrying about:

78%
of students worry about getting poor grades.

74%
of students worry
they cannot afford school.

65%
of students worry
about how school will impact their mental health.

57%
of students worry about finding assistance when they need it.

54%
of students worry

The Academic Support Hub is a website designed to help students understand the many resources available to them. These resources provide information about:

- Time Management
- Study Habits
- Writing and Reading Support
- Designing Learning
- Improving Wellness
- Planning Finances
- Building Learning Communities

Utah State University offers exceptional opportunities for students to get involved in undergraduate research, no matter their major. Through hands-on projects guided by dedicated faculty mentors, students learn how to ask meaningful questions, solve problems, and build skills that strengthen their academic journey. USU provides support through grants, fellowships, and research programs that help students dive deeper into topics they care about and share their work at campus events, regional and national conferences. These opportunities not only enrich their education but also give them a competitive edge as they prepare for graduate school or future careers.

DISABILITY RESOURCE CENTER

usu.edu/drc

Getting Started With the Disability Resource Center

The Disability Resource Center (DRC) works with students to ensure equal access to all aspects of university life. If your student has used an IEP, 504 plan, or if they have a medical, physical or mental health condition that affects their learning, the DRC can help determine what support may be appropriate. Students are encouraged to contact the DRC early, even if they are unsure whether they qualify for services. While faculty and staff are supportive of our students, accommodations can only be granted through the DRC.

During an initial appointment, an accessibility consultant will discuss the student's goals, challenges, and any documentation that may be needed to establish accommodations.

Common accommodations include:

- Extended time on tests
- Reduced-distraction testing environment
- Note takers or assistive note taking technology
- Audio versions of books
- Interpreting, transcribing, and captioning
- Accessible furniture
- Architectural access
- Accessible on-campus housing

VETERANS RESOURCE OFFICE

usu.edu/veterans

The Veterans Resource Office (VRO) is dedicated to helping service members, veterans, and their families thrive academically, personally, and professionally. The VRO offers comprehensive support across all statewide USU campuses, including:

- Assistance accessing VA benefits
- GI Bill® education support
- Community resources
- School Certifying Officials to help students understand and fully use their education benefits
- Information about scholarships and grants
- Student-focused amenities like a USO-style lounge, free snacks, tutoring, and private meeting spaces
- Assistance for students preparing for or returning from deployment

A cornerstone of support within the VRO is the Veterans Integration to Academic Leadership (VITAL) program, which helps veterans successfully transition to university life through peer mentoring, personalized guidance, and advocacy. VITAL peers provide a trusted network of support, helping students navigate academic expectations, healthcare needs, and campus or community resources.

STUDENT NUTRITION ACCESS CENTER (SNAC)

qanr.usu.edu/ndfs/snac/

SNAC is USU's on-campus food pantry, offering students, staff, and faculty easy access to nutritious food when they need it. What started in 2010 as a small, student-led effort has grown into a multi-campus resource supported by community partners and campus programs.

The pantry is designed to be simple and stigma free. Patrons only need a USU ID, and no questions are asked. SNAC provides a variety of food options, including fresh produce and items for different dietary needs, and also operates a monthly mobile pantry to distribute perishable foods. Beyond food assistance, SNAC helps connect students with other basic-needs resources.

Additional Offerings

- Workshops on food preparation, nutrition, and budgeting.
- Volunteer opportunities to support the campus and local community.
- Support for student projects related to food security, nutrition, and basic needs.
- Food recovery programs that reduce waste on campus and within the community

Food insecurity affects many students. Recent surveys show more than half of USU students express some level of food insecurity during the year. Students who have used SNAC report reduced stress about running out of food, improved ability to eat balanced meals, and fewer skipped meals.

CARE OFFICE

usu.edu/intervention/care-office

The CARE (Connect, Assist, Refer, Empower) Office is here to help students navigate challenges that may arise during their college journey. Whether facing personal hardships, financial concerns, food insecurity, or needing access to healthcare and mental health resources, the CARE Team provides guidance and connects students to appropriate campus and community services.

- One-on-one support from trained CARE managers
- Assistance with personal, financial, and academic concerns
- Guidance on accessing health and wellness services
- Support for students experiencing food insecurity or housing challenges

Students can get connected to CARE by calling 435.797.0400, emailing care@usu.edu, or filling out a CARE referral. Additionally, the CARE Office has walk-in hours from 2-4 p.m. Monday-Thursday, and is located in TSC 313.

CARE Referral

If you are worried about a student's well-being, safety, or ability to succeed at USU, you can submit a CARE referral to connect them with the support they may need. This can include concerns about mental health, academic struggles, financial hardships, food or housing insecurity, or any other significant challenges impacting their student experience. Reports can be submitted by students, faculty, staff, or family members at any time. The CARE Office will review the concern and provide outreach, resources, and assistance as appropriate.

To submit a report, visit usu.edu/intervention/care-office

COUNSELING & PREVENTION SERVICES (CAPS)

usu.edu/counseling

CAPS strives to facilitate academic success of USU students by promoting emotional and psychological wellness. By offering students a full range of counseling services in a friendly environment, we strive to help them achieve their personal, relational, and academic goals while at USU.

CAPS Services

- * Initial Consultation
- * Workshops
- * Individual Counseling
- * Group Counseling
- * Psychological and Psychoeducational Assessment
- * Outreach and Consultative Services
- * Case Management for Community Referral
- * Single-Session Therapy
- * Self-Help Services
- * Online Screening Tool
- * Alcohol and Other Drug Prevention Services
- * Nutrition Counseling
- * Crisis Services
(by appointment Monday-Friday,
9 a.m. – 4 p.m.)

Eligibility

Any student, regardless of credits, is eligible for a variety of services. For individual therapy during fall and spring semesters, undergraduates must be enrolled in a minimum of 9 credits and graduate students must be enrolled in 6 credits to participate.

Support for Students Living on Campus

Residence Life has three embedded therapists offering evening services within residence halls. For more information, visit usu.edu/residencelife/embedded-therapy.

Cost

The majority of CAPS services are provided free of charge for eligible students. However, please note that there is a one-time fee associated with psychological and psychoeducational assessments.

Commitment to Student Wellness

We are committed to creating a safe environment for students of all identities. We strive to eliminate barriers for students to access resources and opportunities, and provide services that empower students to meet their full potential.

Confidentiality

CAPS clinical counseling and nutrition services are confidential. Records related to these services are maintained by CAPS and are not part of students' academic records. Alcohol and other substance-use prevention services are confidential unless the services are provided as part of a university conduct process, in which case documentation may become part of a student's conduct record.

Confidentiality may be limited when counselors are legally required to disclose information, including when there is a serious risk of harm to the student or others, suspected abuse or neglect of a child, elder, or vulnerable adult, or when disclosure is required by law or court order.

PUBLIC SAFETY

usu.edu/safety

USU Police

Utah State University is committed to creating a safe, supportive environment where students can learn, grow, and thrive. USU Public Safety works around the clock to protect life and property, respond to campus incidents, and maintain a peaceful community. In addition to traditional law-enforcement responsibilities, officers offer a wide range of free services to support students' daily needs.

Services range from:

- Jump-starting a dead battery
- Vehicle lockouts
- Personal safety escorts
- Bicycle registration
- Prescription drug take-back program

USU Fire and Emergency Management

USU Fire and Emergency Management teams help strengthen campus safety through education, hands-on training, preparedness initiatives, and emergency notifications. Regular safety checks are conducted in on-campus housing and academic buildings.

Annual Security Reports

USU distributes an annual security and fire safety report to all employees and students by October 1 each year. The annual security report includes campus crime and fire statistics for the previous three years, information about how to report crimes and seek help, and details about how USU is preventing sexual violence and improving campus safety. All USU statewide campuses are included in the report available for download at usu.edu/dps/about/clery.

Enroll in USU's Emergency Notification System

Utah State University uses an Emergency Notification System called Aggie Alerts. This system sends real-time alerts about severe weather, emergencies, and other safety concerns. Students are automatically enrolled and should make sure their personal information is up to date.

Families are welcome to enroll in Aggie Alerts by texting "usucommunity" to 333111.

For more information, visit USU Emergency Alerts at usu.edu/emergency.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND DISCRIMINATION

sexualrespect.usu.edu

Utah State University works to educate students about ways to prevent sexual misconduct, and to inform students about reporting options and available resources.

All students at USU are required to complete an annual Title IX Sexual Misconduct training about USU Sexual Misconduct policy, consent, and ways to create a safer campus. Every year the training will have a new focus topic. To learn more about this required training visit prevention.usu.edu.

Sexual Assault and Anti-Violence Information Office (SAAVI)

Upstanding Bystander Intervention Trainings

upstander.usu.edu

USU also offers a bystander intervention training called Upstanding, which is designed to empower students to prevent sexual misconduct and other harms like bias and discrimination, drug and alcohol misuse, and mental health concerns. To learn more about Upstanding, visit the website listed above.

Civil Rights & Title IX Office

usu.edu/civilrights-titleix

Discrimination and sexual misconduct (sexual harassment, sexual assault, sex-based stalking, sexual exploitation, and relationship violence) violate USU policy. Students concerned about such conduct are encouraged to talk to the Civil Rights & Title IX Office or report the conduct.

Reporting

Students are strongly encouraged to report instances of sexual misconduct to USU's Title IX Coordinator. The office is located in Old Main, Room 405, and can be reached by phone at (435) 797-1266, by email titleix@usu.edu or online. USU offers a wide range of resources to help prevent, address, and respond to sexual misconduct. Families can learn more about our commitment to a campus culture of respect at sexualrespect.usu.edu.
