When can I register for classes?

Registration begins November for spring semesters and April for fall semesters (see the Registration Calendar for exact dates). Students are eligible to begin registration based on their number of earned hours. Earned hours are located at the bottom of the unofficial transcript in Banner. Classes in progress will not count toward earned hours.

Registration is available online at all times unless specified on the registration calendar.