Who is considered a transfer student?

If you have completed at least 24 college credits after high school graduation at an accredited institution you are considered a transfer student at USU. If you have less than 24 transferable credits you are required to send your official high school transcript and ACT or SAT test scores to USU.