Exhibit II-1: Proposal Preparation Checklist

It is imperative that all proposals conform to the proposal preparation and submission instructions specified in Part I of the Proposal and Award Policies and Procedures Guide. Conformance with all preparation and submission instructions is required and will be strictly enforced unless a deviation has been approved in advance of proposal submission. Note that some NSF program solicitations modify standard NSF proposal preparation guidelines, and, in such cases, the guidelines provided in the solicitation must be followed. FastLane uses the rules specified for each type of proposal, (e.g., Research, RAPID, EAGER, RAISE, GOALI, Ideas Lab, FASED, Conference, Equipment, or Travel) to check for compliance prior to submission to NSF. Proposers are strongly advised to review Chapter II.C (for Research proposals) and the applicable sections of Chapter II.E. relevant to the other types of proposals being developed PRIOR to submission. NSF will not accept or will return without review proposals that are not consistent with these instructions. See Chapter IV.B and visit: http://www.nsf.gov/bfa/dias/policy/autocompliance.jsp for additional information.

Prior to submission, it is strongly recommended that an administrative review be conducted to ensure that proposals comply with the instructions, and the format specified. This checklist is not intended to be an all-inclusive repetition of the required proposal contents and associated proposal preparation guidelines. It is, however, meant to highlight certain critical items so they will not be overlooked when the proposal is prepared.

A separate biographical sketch has been prepared through use of an NSF-approved format and provided for each individual identified as senior personnel. The pdf file(s) has been uploaded into FastLane, Research.gov or Grants.gov.

Each biographical sketch does not exceed two pages.

The content described has been prepared in accordance with the instructions, and does not contain additional information beyond that specified.

A list, in reverse chronological order by start date of all of the individual’s academic, professional, or institutional appointments, beginning with the current appointment, has been provided for each individual.
