

Sexual Violence Prevention and Response Advisory Committee
AGENDA
March 22, 2019

1. Reorganization of the AAEO Office
  - Introduction of Alison Adams-Perlac, new AAEO Director
  - Introduction of Hilary Renshaw, new Title IX Coordinator
  - Addition of new supportive measures position (search under way)

2. Language use in messaging campaigns to avoid triggering survivors
  - Upstanding social norms campaign (Emmalee)
  - SAAVI online dating campaign (Amanda)
  - Campus Climate Survey (Emmalee and Amanda)
    - Participation events

3. Discussion of Code Blue and Timely Warnings
  - What they are when we must send them (Chief Kuehn)
  - Efforts to tailor language about risk reduction and avoiding victim blaming (Amanda)

4. USU's Amnesty Policy and Information
  - Amnesty FAQs available at <https://www.usu.edu/sexual-assault/policies/amnesty> (Amanda)
  - Incorporating into existing trainings and education (Emmalee)

5. Making Campus Services More Visible (Amanda)
  - Signage

6. What USU is still working on . . . the areas we believe USU still needs to address.
  - More clarity on the Title IX Investigation Process
  - Rebuilding Trust in the Title IX Office
  - Addressing online dating
  - Respondent Advisors
  - Evaluating current training and education
  - Continuing training and refresher education

7. Review of upcoming Consent = Respect video