Frequently Asked Questions

- What is my VA File number? Your VA File number is used for processing your benefits. It is usually your social security number. For Chapter 35, your VA File number is the veteran’s social security number plus a two digit number or letter service member dependent identifier.

Non-certifiable courses:

- The VA will only pay for courses required by the major being pursued. If the classes do not meet this requirement, they are considered not certifiable. Some exceptions do apply.

- The VA can pay for repeated classes that a student received an F grade. USU considers a D as a passing grade and the VA WILL NOT pay for a repeat course unless their degree specifically requires a higher grade than the student received.

- Any course that is not certifiable becomes the student’s responsibility and they will be required to pay for any tuition and fees that are associated with the course. If a course cannot be certified the student will be notified by the Veterans Resource Office.

Enrollment Verification (to receive payment): For students using Chapter 30 (MGIB-AD) and Chapter 1606 (MGIB-SR), a monthly enrollment verification phone call to the VA’s automated phone system, WAVES, is required at 1-877-823-2378. The VA system does not allow verification for the month of school until the last day of the month. Verification is done on the LAST day of the month or anytime thereafter.

Payment: The application process to use GI bill® benefits will have the student provide a checking account for the VA to direct deposit all payments into. VA payment times may vary, based on current volume. Monthly payments come at the start of the following month. For example, January pay comes at the beginning of February.

Changes to class schedule: Students must inform the Veterans Resource office of any changes to their enrollments by submitting a Veterans Progress Form through Service Now. Failure to provide a Veterans Progress Form with all changes to the enrollment status can result in students incurring charges in the event that the classes added do not fit into the selected program of study or a dropped course may create a debt to the VA, which will be the students responsibility to pay.
